QUEEN WRITES TO MRS. F. MACKINNON

The following letter from Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth of Belgium, to Mrs. F. Mackinnon of this city, written in French by the King's secretary arrived here the first of the week. It contains so much thoughtful appreciation of the work done by the Belgian Relief Committee that we publish an English translation for the benefit of those who have worked so hard to make this Relief work a success. The letter follows:

The Study of His Royal Highness, The King of the Belgians, January 29, 1919.

Madam the Directress, Her Royal Highness, the Queen is very much pleased at the gracious thoughts that you have addressed to her and the congratulations on the occasion of the liberation of Belgium. Her Majesty, greatly appreciates with touching solicitude the fact that your committee have never ceased to remember the Belgian people who have suffered in the war and directs me as one having the honor to extending to you many kindly thanks in her name. Will you please accept Madam the Directress my respectful homage.

(Signed) the Chief Secretary of His Majesty, the King.

C. d'Araschot.

To Madam Falkland Mackinnon, Directress of the Daughters of the American Revolution Chapter, Grand Rapids, Wisconsin.

STATE MAY PAY BONUS

Two bills which are of especial importance to soldiers came up for a hearing before the joint finance committee of the State Legislature Wednesday afternoon, both being regarding the paying a bonus from the state funds to honorably discharged soldiers, sailors and marines. One bill provides for a sum equal to three months pay, deducting the $30 bonus paid by the government, the other paying a bonus of $10 for each month a man put in service.

While either would probably be appreciated by the Wisconsin boys who have returned from the service, the latter bill it would seem, the fairest to all the men who served. A man who enlisted the first day war was declared should naturally be given more credit than the man who served only a month or two. His sacrifice was greater and naturally his financial loss was greater. Delegations of soldiers from the state were present at the hearing, giving their views on the matter.

RECITAL WAS GOOD

Gustaf Holmquist, Chicago vocalist, who appeared at the Sunday Evening Club last Sunday, gave a very pleasing and successful recital before a large audience. Mr. Holmquist is a bass and besides being a soloist of some note, is an instructor in the vocal department in the Chicago College of Music. The program was of a religious nature and was exceptionally good.

NEWSPAPERS BACK BIG VICTORY LOAN

"We'll put the Victory Loan over the top just the same as we did the other four," was the consensus of opinion at the meeting of editors held in Chicago last week, when 2,500 newspaper men of this district assembled in that city for the purpose of hearing what was to be said by those who are at the head of the matter in this section. There was no one of this opinion among the newspaper men present, were those from Wisconsin, Michigan, Illinois and Iowa, and while a considerable part of the talking was done by those who had called the meeting, the newspaper men also responded in many instances and there was no doubt left in anybody's mind as to how they stood on the subject. The meeting was held on Friday at the Congress Hotel in Chicago, and that morning small meetings were held by the separate states, but in the afternoon a monster meeting was held where the principal speaker was General Wood, who gave a good talk on the subject of the loan and how the work of the newspapers in the past was appreciated and how necessary it was for them to continue along the same lines until the matter had been cleaned up entirely.

At the time the meeting was held it was not known what the size of the loan would be, nor what would be the rate of interest, but this information has since been announced, but the lack of details in this respect had no bearing on the confidence of those present as to what could be accomplished when the matter was taken up. While there may be some men in the newspaper business who feel a trifle selfish concerning the previous Liberty Loans on account of some friction that may have occurred between them and the local committee, we are here to give it to them, and it won't cost a cent, no matter if it is necessary to give them the entire paper until the job is completed.

It was the kind of spirit that is bound to make a success of the matter, and we predict that the coming loan will be handled and put across with less actual work than any one that has gone before. The committee are organized in better shape than ever before, local committees have had more experience and will start out with more confidence than they did on any former occasion and while the people may in some instances imagine that the loan is a necessary because the war is over, they have got into the habit of taking care of these matters, and every true American will not only appreciate that the loan is necessary and that, in order to make it a success he must take his share and take it cheerfully.

LOCAL STOCKHOLDERS MAY GET STUNG IN MOTOR CO.

Indications that several purchasers of stock in the Pan Motor Car Company, of St. Cloud, may be holding valuable securities, is shown in indictments returned against company officials by Federal Judge George A. Carpenter, in Chicago. About $2,000 of the company's stock was sold by different agents in this section last year, when the company was promoted.

In the court decision the Judge charged the company officials with using the mails to defraud. Advertisements sent thru the mails are said to have stated that stock with a par value of $5 was to be sold at $10, one-half of which was to be used as capital and the other half as surplus funds. The company are said to have asserted that there would not be any promotion expense from a practical standpoint. According to the records of the $10 paid for stock went to Samuel C. Pandolfo as promoter and fiscal agent of the company.

The company also advertised they would sell tank truck trailers to stockholders at a fifteen percent discount. The records show that one tractor was built, mostly for stock selling purposes.

VICTORY LOAN TO OPEN UP MONDAY

The Victory Liberty Loan will open up in Grand Rapids Monday, Theo. W. Brazier being the county Chairman and Jos. A. Cohen the City Chairman. The loan this time will be for $1,500,000,000 and will come due in 1923, bearing 4 1/2 percent. The bonds are an attractive investment and there should be no trouble in getting rid of the county's quota, which will be $1,013,000. At the last loan it was $1,400,000 for county share of the bonds this time has not been estimated but as the loan is twenty-five percent lower it will probably figure up to between $425,000 and $450,000.

O. R. Garrison is secretary of the Loan this time while M. H. Jackson will act as Rural Chairman. Marshfield has chosen Ex-Mayor Folger as city Chairman. C. A. Norrington will be secretary for Grand Rapids and E. S. Bailey the Publicity manager for Marshfield. C. B. Edwards of Marshfield is Chairman of the Speaker Bureau.

The first bond sale that will be put across and contrary to the previous loans there will be no over subscriptions accepted from communities. The rate of interest is high and the terms of payment more liberal than they have been in the past.

I. E. WILCOX AND MAYME MARTIN MARRIED SATURDAY

I. E. Wilcox and Mayme M. Martin, both of this city, were married at the Joseph Yeske home on Fourth Avenue Saturday evening at 7 o'clock. Rev. Noel J. Brood of the Congregational church performing the ceremony. Only the immediate relatives were present and the affair was a quiet one.

The bride wore a traveling suit of navy blue serge and a corsage bouquet of sweet peas, roses and anemones.

Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served at the Yeske home to the relatives and the couple left on the evening train for Milwaukee and Chicago, on their honeymoon. Later they will return to this city and make their home at the Wilcox home on 14th Avenue.

Both parties are very well and favorably known in this city having been here for a good many years and have a wide circle of friends. Mrs. Wilcox formerly assisted at the Wilcox Ready-to-Wear parlors and has made her home here the greater part of her life. Mr. Wilcox was formerly associated with the Johnson & Hill Company in charge of their ready-to-wear department but later branched out and has established a very nice business of his own. He has been located here for about ten years past. The Tribune will unite with their many friends wishing them a long and happily married life.

COMING BACK FROM WEST

Miss Callie Nason, who has been spending the winter in California, has written home in this city that she expects to return to Grand Rapids in the near future. In the letter she also enclosed a clipping from Los Angeles Herald which tells of the approaching marriage of Bob Producers, who wrestles under the name of "Strangler Lewis" Lewis formerly lived at Nekoska. The article says:

Ed. "Strangler" Lewis, whose career here is Robert Producers, and Dr. Ada Scott Morton, one of the best known women surgeons in California, will be married on May 1 in New York. It was announced here today by the couple.

They will return to this city after a wedding trip to England.

BIRON COP AFTER SPEEDERS

Village Marshall Golsong of Biron was busy last Sunday warning the automobile drivers up that way to keep their speed down with the limits of the law. He appeared Monday with a Stovebolt and a local man, who paid fines for traveling too fast over the highways up that way. When brought before Judge Galt Monday, John Jaworski of Sturgeon Point paid a fine of $5 and costs for exceeding the speed limit while Paul Totzke of this city, a similar donation. The Biron authorities report they are going after the speeders and warn the local drivers to be careful of how fast they travel north on the river road.

KING OF COMEDY

Sherman Kelly is coming to Grand Rapids for a special engagement on Easter Sunday, matinee and night and is presenting the latest New York release at popular prices. Mr. Kelly you all know and never misrepresents. This year he carries one of the largest and best organizations of his kind on the road. The vaudeville he carries include the La-Grande sisters. Don't fail to see this comedy "Pal of mine."

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Marriage licenses have been issued by County Clerk Sam Church to the following: Albert Kumm and Ula Suster, both of Pittsville; Morris Brown and Coella Innot, both of Grand Rapids; Edward Bruhnsteadt, Grand Rapids, and Amelia Saegeer, town of Grant; Dewey R. Last and Grace Johnson, both of Grand Rapids.

POSTMASTERS HAVE PROGRAM OUTLINED

The program for the Annual Convention of Third and Fourth Class Postmasters of the state who meet here June 17, 18 and 19th, has been received by Postmaster R. L. Nash of this city. Between five and six hundred representatives from every section of the state are expected to gather here for the three day convention and the program indicates that each day will be an attractive one.

The program opens the convention at four o'clock Tuesday afternoon, the 17th, when the men will register and the executive committee meet. However, the official opening will occur at 7 that evening, when Mayor Chas. E. Briere of this city will welcome the postmasters in behalf of the city. Postmaster Robert Nash is slated for a welcome to the Postmaster Chas. O'Brien of Neenah will respond in behalf of the visitors.

Wednesday the annual address of President W. A. Koch of Brillion will be heard. Sec. Geo. J. Schmidt of Neenah will give his report. Postmaster Frank Schultz of Milwaukee will talk to the men Wednesday morning, business meetings being slated for the balance of the morning and early afternoon.

Wednesday afternoon has been set aside and the people of Grand Rapids propose to entertain the visitors at that time with an auto ride along the river and lunch on the banks of Lake Michigan.

The convention will be closed Thursday with several business meetings and the annual election of officers and delegates to the National convention. The convention will be a large one and as the representatives come from every small town in the state it will be a good opportunity for Grand Rapids to show the visitors what the town is like and what sort of people live here.

FORMER NEKOOSA WOMAN DIES IN MICHIGAN CITY

Mrs. Frank Christian, one of the old residents of Nekoska, died at Munising, Michigan, Monday. Mrs. Christian was forty-eight years of age at the time of her death and was well acquainted both in this city and at Nekoska. She died at the city Thursday morning over the Green Bay road, the funeral to be held Friday morning from the home of her sister, Mrs. Anna Chamberlain, Fourth Avenue. The funeral will occur at 8 o'clock from the house and 10 o'clock from the Catholic church at Nekoska, Rev. Feldman officiating. She is survived by her husband, two daughters, Mrs. Tag Stubb of this city and Mrs. John Zeman of Munising, Mich.; four sons, Charles of Waukesha, and James, Clarence and Neil of Munising; four sisters, Mrs. Mary Martin and Mrs. Anna Chamberlain of this city, Mrs. Frank Nash of Port Edwards and Mrs. Mattie Shipnall of Nekoska and two brothers, John Mann of Brank Park, Minn., and Henry Mann of Nekoska.

HEARD RATE CASE

Arguments on the raising of the telephone rates were heard at the City Hall last Friday, a representative of the Railroad Commission having been up to take the testimony. After hearing the matter he gave the company permission to charge a toll of five cents on calls to Rudolph (this being an agreement between the Rudolph company and the local commission). The decision will be given the local company after the entire commission of the testimony. The new rate to Rudolph starts May 1st.

DR. MORTENSEN WILL BUILD

Dr. Mortensen has purchased the two lots on Third street next to the Stark home and is having plans drawn up for a new modern home there. His intention is to erect a home on Third street and extend this to Fourth street. The doctor is not certain as yet whether he will build this year or not, but is having the plans drawn in order that he will be prepared should he want to erect his home this summer.

PASSED BAD CHECK

R. L. Zeroski, formerly of Milwaukee, who has been employed at Port Edwards for a few weeks past, was arrested Monday and brought before Judge Galt, where he pleaded guilty to passing a check on Ed. Hainsworth of Milwaukee, without having funds in the bank. The check was passed in March. Zeroski was released when he agreed to pay the costs of the action and make the check good to Mr. Hainsworth.

BOUGHT THIRD STREET LOTS

Mayor Chas. E. Briere has purchased the two lots on Third street where the old Z. Laquette residence is located from D. D. Conway, and the two lots in the rear of these from the Wilcox estate, giving him possession of the block from Third to Fourth street. Mr. Briere states that he will not build this summer but he will probably be the location for a future home for the Mayor.

ASSESSORS TO MEET

Thru the courtesy of the Milwaukee Sentinel we are able to publish the above illustration of the Company K basket ball team of this city, which appeared in the Sentinel April 6th.

The local team recently closed a thirty seven game season, losing only two games and winning thirty-five. Both defeats came at the hands of the New London Edison, one of the strongest teams in the state.

The team is probably the strongest that has ever represented Grand Rapids and as many of the men expect to attend schools in other cities next year, it is not probable that we will have as strong a team in many years to come.

SOLDIERS CAN GET UNIFORMS

Many of the returned soldiers are asking if it would be possible to have another uniform given them for at the time of their discharge they were requested to return the ones given them while in the service.

From a letter received from the U. S. adjutant general, I herewith quote:

"That the provisions of this act shall apply to all persons who served in the United States army, navy or marine corps during the present war, honorably discharged since April 6, 1917. And in cases where such clothing and uniforms have been returned to the government on their discharge the same or similar clothing and uniform in kind and value as near as may be shall be returned and given to such soldiers, sailors and marines."

All who may be interested in the above may receive further instructions and information from the local office.

One more item which may be of interest to the returned soldier is:

"Under present regulations the distinctive mark to be worn by honorably discharged soldiers is a scarlet chevron to be worn on the left arm of coat and overcoat point up."

MANY WANT CITIZENSHIP

Judge Park will open circuit court here Saturday morning at 1:30 when he will hold hearings on twenty-eight applications for second citizenship papers. Some of this number are now in France with the E. F. White while others have their second papers out while in the service, meaning that considerably less than twenty-eight will actually be heard.

GOING TO ALASKA

Dr. A. H. Fache and family who have been located here for several years as a chiropractor, is closing up his business and expects to leave for Alaska, where he expects to make his future home. Mr. Fache expects to go to Wrangell, Alaska, first where he will look things over, probably later go over to British Columbia.

Levi and Cohen were partners in business, Cohen was drafted and had to go to Camp. About a month after he arrived he received a telegram from Levi which read, "Business burned out, got fifty thousand dollars insurance, what shall I do?" Cohen wired back, "Start another business." One month later, Cohen received another telegram which read, "Business burned out again, got seventy-five thousand dollars, what shall I do?" Cohen immediately wired and said, "Keep the Home Fires Burning."

NEW CITY COUNCIL INSTALLED TUESDAY

The City Council for the coming year, which includes three new members, was officially organized Tuesday evening when Alderman Otto Roenius was elected President and Alderman Wm. Dickman, W. S. Gardner and Peter Tomasek were officially taken into the City's Executive body.

They acted favorably on the report of the financial committee recommending that they appropriate $400 for the purchase of three low pitched saxophones which will be used by the band but remain as the property of the city. The proposition of paying the members of the band $1 per concert during the summer is evidently doomed to die a natural death as no report was returned to the council on this matter by the committee.

Pupils of the Lincoln High school and the Wood County Normal who have been wading thru the mud of Birch street to reach the schools will have a side walk to walk on next year, according to a resolution which the council adopted, providing for a sidewalk from Third to Lincoln street, on the South side of Birch. This street has become pretty generally known by both students and people employed around town who live in the southeast end of town and the walk is probably needed there as badly as any street in the residence section.

Failure of one property owner to sign the petition for paving one block south of Grand Avenue on First and Fourth Avenues will make it necessary for the city to force the petition thru, delaying the work a couple of months. It was hoped that property owners would all sign up saving several weeks time in advertising notice of determination to pave. However, the paving will be carried out in spite of this delay.

The old council adjourned after hearing a few routine matters on sewers and street lights, turning their places over to the newly elected members for the coming year.

TO PAVE WAUSAU-POINT ROAD

The Wisconsin Highway Commission, thru their offices in this city, are calling for bids for the paving of the Wausau-Stevens Point road to Mosinee, with concrete. This road is used a good deal by local people who travel to Wausau when the west side roads are muddy and should prove a local benefit if paved.

Mrs. W. S. Flashback left Monday for Joliet, Ill., where she will spend a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. Walter Fabner.

Later they will return to this city and make their home at the Wilcox home on Fourth Avenue.

Both parties are very well and favorably known in this city, having been here for a good many years and have a wide circle of friends. Mrs. Wilcox formerly assisted at the Wilcox Ready-to-Wear parlors and has made her home here the greater part of her life. Mr. Wilcox was formerly associated with the Johnson & Hill Company in charge of their ready-to-wear department but later branched out and has established a shoe business of his own. WILL BUILD WALK ALONG LINCOLN SCHOOL GROUNDS

At a short meeting of the School Board Monday evening a few matters of minor importance came up, the evening being spent largely in discussing how the coal bills for the Lincoln school could be reduced. The advisability of putting in a sidewalk along Lincoln street, on the west side of the school grounds was discussed, the fact that the street will be paved being taken into consideration. It was decided to tear the fence down on this side of the school and put in a walk which will replace the path which has served there for many years. It is probable that something will be done regarding the present heating system of the Lincoln building, it being considered from an economical standpoint.

Starving in the Midst of Plenty

Acid-Stomach Steals Strength and
Good Feelings From Millions

One of the worst effects of acid-stomach is that very often it literally starves its victims in the midst of plenty. And the strange thing about it is that the people with acid-stomachs seldom know what their trouble really is.

No matter how good or wholesome the food may be, or how much they eat, they do not gain in strength. This is clearly explained by the fact that an acid-stomach cannot properly digest food. Instead of healthily and fully digesting the food, the acid causes the food to sour and ferment. Then when this mass of sour, fermented food, charged with excess acid, passes into the intestines, it becomes the breeding place for all kinds of germs and toxic poisons, which in turn are absorbed into the blood and in this way distributed throughout the entire body. And that is exactly why it is that so many thousands of people eat and eat and keep on eating and yet are literally starving in the midst of plenty. Their acid-stomachs make it impossible for them to get the full measure of nourishment out of their food. And it doesn't take long for this poor nourishment to show its effects in a weakened, emaciated body.

You may say: "My stomach doesn't hurt me." That may be true because many victims of acid-stomach do not actually suffer stomach pains. Then again there are millions who do suffer all kinds of aches and pains—headaches, rheumatic twinges, joint, lumbago, pains around the heart and in the chest—who never dream that an

Wants the Picture of Every Boy Who Has
Been in the Service From This County

It is the duty of every friend or relative to see that every individual who gave his services in our war with Germany should be listed and recorded in the War Register, whose representatives will soon be in your county.

The War Register will present an authentic record showing photographs and biographies of all "the boys" and others who so bravely represented their country and the State of Wisconsin in this great war. This work is to be done free, and a quick response is your patriotic duty.

This state has given generously of its manhood, some of whom will never return. Let every citizen co-operate in every way to compile a record that will stand as a monument of credit to the patriotism of this state, a tribute to each individual soldier, an honor to which we can point with pride.

The pictures and biographies will be recorded in the Congressional Library at Washington, State Historical Library at Madison and at other public buildings in the principal cities in Wisconsin.

We also want the pictures of women who have been associated with the Red Cross work from each county, nurses, men connected with Liberty Loan committees and other war work for this book. Send pictures in as quickly as possible and you will have a record to be treasured by your families and handed down from one generation to another.

Don't delay a day. If you have no picture, get one. Your photo will be returned without damage. Fill coupon and send with picture. Address all letters and pictures to—

PLAN HEARING ON PROHIBITION BILL

Bennett Measure Before Legislature This Week.

THE PROVISIONS ARE DRASTIC

Provides for Commissioner and Places Fund of $25,000 at His Disposal to See That Law is Enforced.

Madison.—One of the big hearings of the legislature this week will be over the Bennett bill to enforce the dry amendment throughout the state. This measure provides for a prohibition commissioner and places $25,000 at his disposal for enforcing the law. The bill is stringent in many of its provisions, and it is understood that even the anti-saloon forces will ask for changes if the Bennett measure is to be enacted into law.

The vote in some cities of the state on the wet and dry issue last week has startled some of the legislators and it is intimated here that a bill is being drafted to declare prohibition in the state on July 1, and not wait for the federal prohibition amendment next January to go into effect. Simultaneously with the suggestion of further legislation comes the announcement of Superintendent R. P. Hutton of the Anti-Saloon league to the effect that no member of the league will be a candidate for prohibition commissioner under the proposed dry enforcement measure.

The unwritten law of the Anti-Saloon league of America is that no salaried employee, no officer and no one connected with the league shall seek or accept office, either by election or appointment," said Mr. Hutton. A letter is being sent to all of the Anti-Saloon league forces advising them of this decision. Mr. Hutton says that the league wants to remain nonpartisan in its organization and will work for a dry world by 1935. This statement disposes of the rumor current for some time in the legislature that Hutton could be a candidate for the position of prohibition commissioner.

Several bills giving municipalities greater power in the acquisition of public utility plants will be given a hearing this week by the senate committee on corporations. The Nye and Zarnach bills will be heard the same day. The latter measure would permit the municipality to buy a municipal plant to the exclusion of any other utility. Senator A. J. Pullen has announced a hearing on the legislative committee's marketing bill for Thursday afternoon, April 10.

The Czerwinski bill for a four-year college course in normal schools will be considered by the assembly education committee this week. This statement disposes of the rumor current for some time in the legislature that Hutton could be a candidate for the position of prohibition commissioner.

Also this week the senate will probably give final consideration to the Olson whiskey butter bill. This measure was practically killed by the senate ten days ago, but a substitute amendment was offered changing the name of "whiskey butter" to "whiskey cream-butter."

Final action is expected from the senate on the pending Nolan bill to submit to a vote of the people at the November election in 1920 the right of suffrage to women. The present legislature has passed the Cox bill extending the rights of women in presidential elections. The Nolan bill provides that upon the approval of the people full suffrage shall be granted to women in all matters. The Nolan bill has already passed the lower house with only the vote of Assemblyman Kill in opposition. Concurrence is expected in the senate after which the measure will then go to the governor for approval. Close friends of Governor Philipp say he will sign the bill. The Buckley bill prohibiting the desecration of the American flag comes up for senate concurrence.

Governor Scofield 77 Years Old.
As has been his custom for many years, former Gov. Edward Scofield went to Oconto last week to celebrate his birthday, this being the seventy-seventh.

Holds Up Appropriation Measure.
A change in the policy of making appropriations to the state held up by Assemblyman Axel Johnson. Polk county, to give him an opportunity to investigate the matter. The finance committee bill provides for an annual appropriation of $60,000, but Assemblyman Johnson charges that the law has been so amended as to increase the cost of that department and to turn all of the fees into the fund of the dairy and food department instead of into the state treasury.

State to Pay for Election Contests.
The three election contests likely will cost the state more than $1,000, and it may be as high as $2,450. Under the law a candidate for legislative office, in case of a contest, is entitled to be reimbursed for his expenses in the contest by legislative action up to $5,000, whether he is declared elected or not. Three bills have already been introduced to reimburse candidates as follows: John Lorfeld, Manitowish county, $500; George A. Rathsack, Manitowish county, $500, and Frank Metcalfe, $150.

Rail Company to Appeal Case.
The Wisconsin Railway, Light and Power company will appeal to the supreme court from the decision of Circuit Judge E. Ray Stevens, vacating the order of the railroad commission granting 6-cent street car fares in La Crosse. Meanwhile La Crosse citizens will continue to pay 6 cents. An order to stay proceedings pending the appeal was signed by Judge Stevens. Provisions are that coupons will be granted with the payment of 6-cent fare. If the supreme court upholds the decision the coupons will be redeemed.

History of Fairs in Wisconsin.

The county fair has been a great educational factor in the development of the state of Wisconsin. The idea was recognized by the first state legislature in 1848, and, while the county fair law has been changed and extended at many sessions, there has never been a curtailment of the state encouragement.

Almost every session of the legislature considers county fair bills, but the result has always been that the financial aid has been increased. Probably no single institution, unless it is the college of agriculture and the farmers' institutes, has had such a stimulating effect on better agriculture and the adoption of approved methods of farming as the county fair. This latter opinion is expressed by G. W. Vergerot, who has spent years studying the problem.

In Wisconsin the greater number of county fairs owe their existence to acts granting aid to societies of an agricultural nature. Probably the first movement in favor of agricultural aid was the introduction of a bill in the first state legislature, on July 31, 1848. The result of this step was that a constitution for a state agricultural society was drawn up and finally adopted on March 7, 1849. The society was established and held the first state fair at Janesville, on October 1, 1851. Later the organization was incorporated.

"Many Wisconsin county fairs were organized and held exhibitions before they received state aid," says G. W. Vergerot, in a thesis which he recently prepared on the subject.

"The Kenosha Agricultural society held the first county fair held in Wisconsin at Bristol, on October 10, 1850. The next week the farmers of Walworth county held a fair at East Troy. Nine other associations held county exhibitions before the act for the encouragement and promotion of agriculture was passed in 1856; Columbia, Fond du Lac, Grant, Jefferson, Sauk, Sheboygan, Washington and Waushara Agricultural societies were the pioneers.

This legislative act gave groups of citizens power to form agricultural societies, and draw up constitutions and elect officers. One hundred dollars was to be paid annually to the society which complied with certain conditions.

Feeble-Minded Patients Transferred.
Fifty-eight patients from the home for the feeble-minded at Chippewa Falls have been transferred to the southern Wisconsin home for the feeble-minded at Union Grove, Racine county. This transfer marks the opening of the new state institution which has been under erection for the past four years. Of the patients transferred, 23 were males and 25 were females. A report of the transfer has just been received by the legislative board of control. The claim is made to the legislature that the present facilities are not adequate to care for the number of feeble-minded in the state. Additional buildings will be erected for at the Union Grove institution.

According to the report of the board of control there are $253 in patients in the state mental public care. Of this number 1,305 are cured for in state hospitals, 104 at the Central Hospital for the Insane, 576 at the Milwaukee hospital for the Insane and 6,268 at the County Asylum for Chronic Insane.

Krueger Boys Guilty of Murder.
Frank and Leslie Krueger were found guilty of murder in the first degree for killing Harry Jensen, station agent at Withee, by a jury in Judge James J. O'Neill's court at Neillsville. Both were sentenced to life imprisonment and removed to the Wisconsin State Prison.

Mrs. Caroline Krueger, mother of the two men and who with them faced trial on a charge of first-degree murder, was adjudged not guilty.

Immediately upon leaving the courtroom, Mrs. Krueger was re-arrested by Assistant United States Marshal Gantz on a charge of inciting resistance to the draft law. She was again lodged in the county jail, but later was freed on bail.

Motion for a new trial was introduced by attorneys for the defense, and Judge O'Neill stated that he would allow three weeks for preparation of arguments.

Seek to Repeal 46 Special Charters.
An effort is to be made through a series of bills to place all cities and villages of the state under the general law. The bills provide for the repeal of all special city and village charters and for re-incorporation under the general charter laws. A joint hearing will be held by the senate and assembly judiciary committees probably during the present week. Forty-six cities and towns are directly affected by the bill.

"Flu" Ban Lifted in Madison.
The influenza ban, which a short time ago threatened to stop the proceedings of the Wisconsin legislature, many of the members having been attacked by the disease, has been lifted in the state capital, by action of the city board of health.

Heavy Demand for Farm Workers.
The 25 free employment offices in Wisconsin had demands on April 1 for more than 800 more farm hands and board, than could be secured, according to information received at the state clearance office. Since January 1 the free employment service has placed 1,249 men on farms and could have placed 1,000 more if they could have been procured. There is a big call for farm hands in the central and southern parts of the state.

Now Have Continuous Power Line.
A continuous power line is ready for operation in the Wisconsin river valley connecting the cities of Stevens Point, Mosinee, Wausau and Merrill. A subsidiary line has been completed connecting the high line running to the northern cities, making it possible to furnish power to or from any of the towns of the circuit. The cables of the Wisconsin Valley Electric company are connected with the power system of the Consolidated Water Power and Paper company of Grand Rapids.

Lake Traffic Men Organized.
A permanent organization, to be known as the Great Lakes Commerce association, was created by the conference of great lakes cities called for consideration of restoration of transportation facilities on the great lakes. The membership will include individuals, firms, private and municipal corporations, commercial and manufacturing associations and trade bodies interested in lake transportation. Forty applications for membership were signed.

CALLUS CORNS LIFT RIGHT OFF

Doesn't hurt to lift them off with fingers

Don't suffer! A tiny bottle of Freezone costs but a few cents at any drug store. Apply a few drops on the corns, calluses and "hard skin" on bottom of feet, then lift them off.

When Freezone removes corns from the toes or calluses from the bottom of the feet, the skin beneath is left pink and healthy and never sore or tender.

Hopetfulness.
"Charley, don't," said young Mrs. Torkins, "I hope you will go right on discussing the league of nations with everybody you meet."
"You think I have the subject pretty well in hand, eh?"
"No, I'm hoping that if you keep on conversing maybe you'll find out something about it from somebody."

If You Need a Medicine You Should Have the Best

Have you ever stopped to reason why it is that so many products that are extensively advertised, all at once drop out of sight and are soon forgotten? The reason is plain—the article did not fulfill the promise of the manufacturer. This applies more particularly to a medicine. A medicinal preparation that has real curative value almost sells itself, as like an endless chain system the remedy is recommended by those who have been benefited, to those who are in need of it.

A prominent druggist says: "One of the best remedies I have used for a long time is Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a preparation I have sold for many years and never hesitate to recommend, for in almost every case it shows excellent results, as many of my customers testify. No other kidney remedy has so large a sale."

According to sworn statements and verified testimony of thousands who have used the preparation, the success of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is due to the fact, so many people claim, that it fulfills almost every wish in overcoming kidney trouble by bladder ailments; corrects urinary troubles and neutralizes the uric acid which causes rheumatism.

You may receive a sample bottle of Swamp-Root by Postal Note. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., and enclose ten cents; also mention this paper. Large and medium size bottles for sale at all drug stores.—Adv.

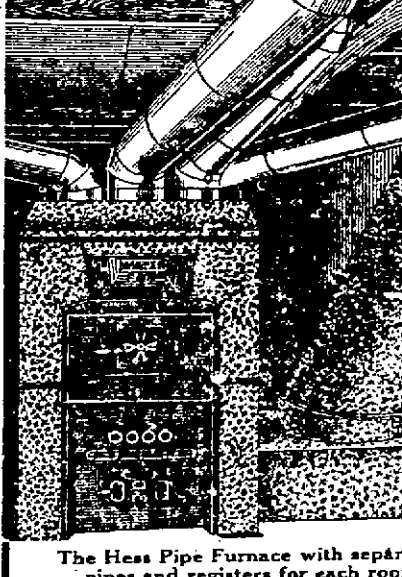

BOSCHEE'S SYRUP

Why use ordinary cough remedies when Boschée's Syrup has been used so successfully for fifty-one years in all parts of the United States for coughs, bronchitis, colds settled in the throat, especially lung troubles? It gives the patient a good night's rest, free from coughing, with easy expectoration in the morning, gives nature a chance to soothe the inflamed parts, throw off the disease, helping the patient to regain his health. NOTHING NEW IN WARFARE

Methods Employed During Great Conflict Merely Copies of Those in Use Long Ago.

By the use of trenches in the great war the opposing forces adopted means of offense and defense that long antedated the invention of firearms. The steel helmet, introduced after more than 200 years of disuse, and many a soldier owes his life to the fact that the curved surface of his head-covering deflected a bullet. The trench periscope is an adaptation of a device that was invented nearly three centuries ago. The barbed wire entanglement is only another form of the ancient abatis, and the fact that it is now often painted green to make it less easy to see is a link that joins it even more intimately to its prototype. The pits with sharp spikes at the bottom and the caltrops—four-pointed iron instruments that always stand with one point upward however they may fall, are survivals of medieval warfare. The catapult of the Romans that once threw stones recently cast explosive grenades from trench to trench. The German flame projector goes back to the days when armies deluged each other with burning oil and burning pitch, and the use of poisonous gases was anticipated by the Chinese, who for centuries used "stinkpots."

Airplanes to Subdue Head Hunters.
The next year's budget of the governor general of Formosa will contain an item of $91,500 for a flying corps to subdue the head-hunting aborigines of that island. Mr. Shimomura, chief of civil administration of Formosa, will say: "Probably four airplanes will be used in the first year, and operations will be started as soon as the formal sanction of the diet is obtained. If it is difficult to secure the necessary aviators, we shall ask the army to send their aviators. We may also ask the army to train dew aviators specially to meet our requirements. There is nothing like airplanes for aving Formosan natives; experience shows that this weapon is one of the best for subduing them. No economic exploitation of Ari, Dulbu, Niltake and other unsuited places can be undertaken until after the savage aborigines are subdued."

His Ice Cream Buckets.
They were on the bucket platform of an outboard Irvington street car. One was carrying a bucket of ice cream, which was labeled all over with the words, "Ice Cream."

From the way the other passengers eyed the bucket it was evident they either thought the ice cream season was past or wondered why the carrier hadn't bought it in Irvington instead of carrying it such a distance. "I guess people think I'm dippy, carrying a bucket of ice cream from downtown when it can be bought out here," said the man with the bucket. "But it's not ice cream. It's chile."

"Well, they say ice cream is chile. So you should worry," said the other. —Indianapolis News.

Life as it is Liven.
The gentleman from the agricultural district had come to the city, and after disposing of several heavy set hogs at $200 a throw, stopped in a cigar store. Never mind that the cigar store man said, that the gentleman from the agricultural district demonstrated thus: "Why, ye darn robber, 7 cents for a nickel cigar! Ya must think I got money to burn." (Of course there is no particular moral connected herewith because the gentleman from the agricultural district started from downtown on a run.) —Indianapolis News.

Kidding Himself.
"That fellow Jones is plumb crazy kidding himself."
"How's that?"

"Why making excuses for himself—balancing himself with pretense. For instance, the other night he came in at 12 o'clock. He didn't want to lie to his wife, so he turned the hall clock over on its side to make it look like a quarter of nine, and went to bed conscientiously."

Paradoxical Action.
"Why do those two speak so coolly to each other?"
"Because they've had warm words."

When it is our duty to do an act of justice it should be done promptly. To delay is injustice.—Lafayette.

PIPELESS PREFERRED

Many householders write for advice in heating their homes, and tell us they desire to heat with furnaces, and very often wind up with the words, "PIPELESS PREFERRED."

Many houses, there are, which can be heated perfectly with the pipeless method; one register warms all the rooms and draws the cold air off the floors, making the rooms comfortable, and circulating heat to the farthest corners.

There are, however, many houses where the pipeless method is not the best method. Rooms that are detached and away from the main rooms, having more than ordinary exposure, and in which more than ordinary heating is required, are not heated by the pipeless method, but we have other methods of heating with furnaces, four of them; and one of the four is the best one for you. Starving in the Midst of Plenty

Good Feelings From Millions

One of the worst features of acid stomach is that it often literally starves its victims in the midst of plenty. And the strange thing about it is that the people with acid-stomachs seldom know what their trouble really is.

No matter how good or wholesome the food may be or how much they eat, they do not gain in strength. This is clearly explained by the fact that an acid-stomach cannot properly digest food. Instead of healthily normal action, the excess acid causes the food to sour and ferment. Then when this mass of sour, fermented food charged with excess acid, passes into the intestines, it becomes the breeding place for all kinds of germs and toxic poisons, which in turn are absorbed into the blood and cause the food to sour and ferment. WHO'S WHO WAR REGISTER OF WISCONSIN

It is the duty of every friend or relative to see that every individual who gave his services in our war with Germany should be listed and recorded in the War Register, whose representatives will soon be in your county.

The War Register will present an authentic record showing photographs and biographies of all "the boys" and others who so brilliantly represented their county and the State of Wisconsin in this great war. This work is to be done free, and a quick response is your patriotic duty.

This state has given generously of its manhood, some of whom will never return. Let every citizen co-operate in every way to compile a record that will stand as a monument of credit to the patriotism of this state, a tribute to each individual soldier, an honor to which we can point with pride.

This pictures and biographies will be recorded in the Congressional Library at Washington, State Historical Library at Madison and at other public buildings in the principal cities in Wisconsin.

We also want the pictures of women who have been associated with the Red Cross work from each county, nurses, men connected with Liberty Loan committees and other war work for this book. Send pictures in as quickly as possible and you will have a record to be treasured by your families and handed down from one generation to another.

Don't delay a day. If you have a picture, get one. Your photo will be returned without damage. Fill coupon and send with picture. Address all letters and pictures to—

PLAN HEARING ON PROHIBITION BILL

Bennett Measure Before Legislature This Week.

THE PROVISIONS ARE DRASTIC

Provides for Commissioner and Places
Fund of $25,000 at His Disposal to See That Law Is Enforced.

Madison.—One of the best hearings of the legislature this week will be over the Bennett bill to enforce the dry amendment throughout the state. This measure provides for a prohibition commissioner and places $25,000 at his disposal for enforcing the law. The bill is stringent in many of its provisions, and it is understood that even the anti-saloon forces will not for changes if the Bennett measure is to be enacted into law.

The vote in some cities of the state on the wet and dry issue last week has started some of the legislators and it is intimated here that a bill is being drafted to declare prohibition in the state on July 1, and not wait for the federal prohibition amendment next January to go into effect. Simultaneously with the suggestion of further dry legislation comes the announcement of Superintendent R. P. Hutton of the Anti-Saloon league to the effect that no member of the league will be a candidate for prohibition commissioner under the proposed dry enforcement measure.

"The unwritten law of the Anti-Saloon league of America is that no salaried employee, no officer and no one connected with the league shall seek or accept office, either by election or appointment," said Mr. Hutton. A letter is being sent to all of the Anti-Saloon league forces advising them of this decision. Mr. Hutton says that the league wants to remain nonpartisan in its organization and will work for a dry world by 1930. This statement disposes of the rumor current for some time in the legislature that Hutton would be a candidate for the position of prohibition commissioner.

Several bills giving municipalities greater power in the acquisition of public utility plants will be given a hearing this week by the senate committee on corporations. The Nye and Zammach bills will be heard the same day. The latter measure would permit the mortgaging of a municipal plant to make extension or buy additional utilities for the city. Senator A. J. Pallen has announced a hearing on the legislative committee's marking bill for Thursday afternoon, April 10.

The Greenback bill for a four-year college course in normal schools will be considered by the assembly education committee this week.

Two large measures before the legislature which promise to take much of the time of committees in drafting are the marketing bills and the measures to enforce prohibition. Committee bills are expected on both subjects. With the return of the members of the legislature for work this week scores of important propositions are now before them for consideration and long sessions of bills face them at every session. Consideration of the reappointment of Chairman Carl D. Jackson as a member of the Wisconsin railroad commission will come before the senate this week. The vote is expected to be close.

Also this week the senate will probably give final consideration to the Olson wharf bill. This measure was practically killed by the senate on days ago, but a substitute amendment was offered changing the name of "wharf" to "wharf-cum-butter."

Final action is expected from the senate on the pending Nolan bill to submit to a vote of the people at the November election in 1920 the right of giving suffrage to women. The present legislature has passed the bill extending the rights of women in presidential elections. The Nolan bill provides that upon the approval of the people full suffrage shall be granted to women in all matters. The Nolan bill has already passed the lower house with only the vote of Assemblyman Killa in opposition. Concurrence is expected in the senate after which the measure will then go to the governor for approval. Close friends of Governor Philipp say he will sign the bill. The Buckley bill prohibiting the desecration of the American flag comes up for senate conference.

As has been his custom for many years, former Gov. Edward Seefeld went to Oconto last week to celebrate his birthday, this being the seventy-seventh.

Holds Up Appropriation Measure.
A change in the policy of making appropriations to the state dairy and food department has been held up by Assemblyman Axel Johnson, Polk county, to give him an opportunity to investigate the matter. The finance committee bill provides for an annual appropriation of $60,000, but Assemblyman Johnson charges that the old law has been so amended as to increase the fees in that department and to turn all of the fees into the fund of the dairy and food department instead of into the state treasury.

State to Pay for Election Contests.
The three election contests likely will cost the state more than $1,000, and it may be as high as $2,450. Under the law a candidate for legislative office, in case of a contest, is entitled to be reimbursed for his expenses in the contest by legislative action up to $5,000, whether he is declared elected or not. Three bills have already been introduced to reimburse candidates as follows: John Lorfeld, Manitowish county, $500; George A. Buthardt, Manitowish county, $800; and Frank Metcalfe, $150.

Rail Company to Appeal Case.
The Wisconsin Railway, Light and Power company will appeal to the supreme court from the decision of Circuit Judge B. Ray Stevens, venting the order of the railroad commission granting 6-cent street car fares in La Crosse. Meanwhile La Crosse citizens will continue to pay 6 cents. An order to stay proceedings pending the appeal was signed by Judge Stevens. Provisions are that coupons will be granted with the payment of 6-cent fare. If the supreme court upholds the decision the coupons will be redeemed.

History of Fairs in Wisconsin.

The county fair has been a great educational factor in the development of the state of Wisconsin. The idea was recognized by the first state legislature in 1848, and, while the county fair law has been changed and extended at many sessions, there has never been a curtailment of the state encouragement.

Almost every session of the legislature considers county fair bills, but the result has always been that the financial aid has been increased. Probably no single institution, unless it is the college of agriculture and the farmers' institutes, has had such a stimulating effect on better agriculture and the adoption of approved methods of farming as the county fair. This latter opinion is expressed by G. W. Vergeron, who has spent years studying the problem.

In Wisconsin the greater number of county fairs owe their existence to acts granting aids to societies of an agricultural nature. Probably the first movement in favor of agricultural aid was the introduction of a bill in the first state legislature, on July 31, 1848. The result of this step was that a constitution for a state agricultural society was drawn up and finally adopted on March 7, 1849. The society was established and held its first state fair at Janesville, on October 1, 1851. Later the organization was incorporated.

"Many Wisconsin county fairs were organized and held exhibitions before they received state aid," says G. W. Vergeron, in a thesis which he recently prepared on the subject.

The Kerosene Agricultural society held the first county fair held in Wisconsin at Bristol, on October 30, 1850. The next week the farmers of Walworth county held a fair at East Troy. Nine other associations held county exhibitions before the fair for the encouragement and promotion of agriculture was passed in 1850. Columbia, Fond du Lac, Grant, Jefferson, Stark, Sheboygan, Washington and Waubesa Agricultural societies were the pioneers. This legislative act gave groups of citizens power to form agricultural societies and draw up constitutions and elect officers. One hundred dollars was to be paid annually to the society which complied with certain conditions.

Foolish-Minded Patients Transferred.
Fifty-eight patients from the home for the feeble-minded at Chilpewa Falls have been transferred to the southern Wisconsin home for the feeble-minded at Union Grove, Racine county. This transfer marks the opening of the new state institution which has been under erection for the past four years.

Of the patients transferred, 23 were males and 25 were females. A report of the transfer has just been filed with the legislature by the state board of control. The claim is made to the legislature that the present facilities are not adequate to care for the number of feeble-minded in the state. Additional buildings will be asked for at the Union Grove institution.

According to the report of the board of control there are 5,253 insane patients in the state under public care. Of this number 1,305 are cared for in state hospitals, 101 at the Central Hospital for the Insane, 376 at the Milwaukee Hospital for the Insane and 6,293 at the County Asylum for Chronic Insane.

Krueger Boys Guilty of Murder.
Frank and Leslie Krueger were found guilty of murder in the first degree for killing Harry Tenney, station agent at Wilcox, by a jury in Judge James J. O'Neill's court at Milwaukee. Both were sentenced to life imprisonment and fined $10,000.

Mrs. Caroline Krueger, mother of the two men, and who with them faced trial on a charge of first-degree murder, was acquitted not guilty. Immediately upon leaving the court room Mrs. Krueger was re-arrested by Assistant United States Marshal Gantz on a charge of inciting resistance to the draft law. She was again lodged in the county jail, but later was freed on bail.

Motion for a new trial was introduced by attorneys for the defense, and Judge O'Neill stated that he would allow three weeks for preparation of arguments.

Seek to Repeal 46 Special Charters.
An effort is to be made through two revised bills to place all cities and villages of the state under the general law. The bills provide for the repeal of all special city and village charters and for incorporation under the general charter laws. A joint hearing will be held by the senate and assembly judiciary committees probably during the present week. Forty six cities and towns are directly affected by the bill.

"Fly" Ben Lifted in Madison
The influenza bug, which a short time ago threatened to stop the proceedings of the Wisconsin legislature, many of the members having been attacked by the disease, has been lifted in the state capital, by action of the city board of health.

Heavy Demand for Farm Workers.
The 28 free employment offices in Wisconsin had demands on April 1 for more than 800 men and farm hands at from $10 to $75 per month, noon and board, that could be secured, according to information received at the state clearance office. Since January 1 the free employment service has placed 1,245 men on farms and could have placed 1,000 more if they could have been procured. There is a big call for farm hands in the central and southern parts of the state.

Now Have Continuous Power Line.
A continuous power line is ready for operation in the Wisconsin river valley country, the cities of Stevens Point, Mosinee, Waunakee and Merrill. A subsidiary line has been completed connecting the big power plant at Merrill with the high line running to the northern cities, making it possible to furnish power to or from any of the towns of the circuit. The cables of the Wisconsin Valley Electric company are connected with the power system of the Consolidated Water Power and Paper company of Grand Rapids.

Lake Traffic Men Organized.
A permanent organization to be known as the Great Lakes Commerce association, was created by the conference of great lakes cities called for consideration of restoration of transportation facilities on the great lakes. The membership will include individuals, firms, private and municipal corporations, commercial and manufacturing associations and trade bodies interested in lake transportation. Forty applications for membership were signed.

CALLUS CORNS LIFT RIGHT OFF

Doesn't hurt to lift them off with fingers

Don't suffer! A tiny bottle of Freezone costs but a few cents at any drug store. Apply a few drops on the corns, calluses and "hard skin" on bottom of feet, then lift them off.

When Freezone removes corns from the toes or calluses from the bottom of the feet, the skin beneath is left pink and healthy and never sore or tender.

Hopefulness.
"Charley, don't," said young Mrs. Torkles, "I hope you will go right on discussing the league of nations with everybody you meet."

"You think I have the subject pretty well in hand, eh?"
"No, I'm hoping that if you keep on conversing maybe you'll find out something about it from somebody."

If You Need a Medicine You Should Have the Best

Have you ever stopped to reason why it is that so many products that are extensively advertised, all at once drop out of sight and are soon forgotten? The reason is plain—the article did not fulfill the promise of the manufacturer. This applies more particularly to a medicine. A medicine preparation that has real curative value almost sells itself, as like an endless chain system the remedy is recommended by those who have been benefited, to those who are in need of it. A prominent druggist says: "Take for example Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a preparation I have sold for many years and never hesitate to recommend, for in almost every case it shows excellent results, as many of my customers testify. No other kidney remedy has so large a sale."

According to sworn statements and verified testimony of thousands who have used the preparation, the success of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is due to the fact, so many people claim, that it fulfills almost every wish in overcoming kidney, liver and bladder ailments; cures urinary troubles and neutralizes the urea acid which causes rheumatism.

You may receive a sample bottle of Swamp Root by sending Post Address: Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., and enclosing two recent issues of this paper. Large and medium size bottles for sale at all drug stores—Adv.

Poachers Kill Off Big Game.
Piscataway, United States government preserve and one of the best for maintaining big game sections of the country is about to be denuded of its game by poachers, according to statements by Rudolph Diefenbach, forest supervisor. Poachers, usually under cover of night, drive the deer into the open or off the preserves and then kill them. The number slain is reaching alarming proportions.

BOSCHEE'S SYRUP

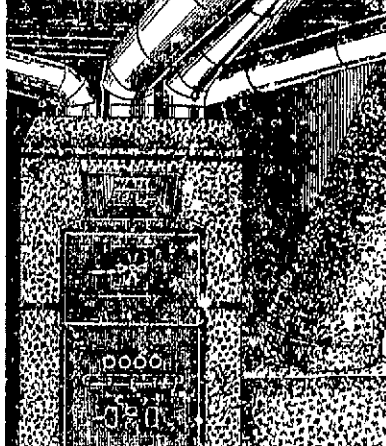

Why use ordinary cough remedies when Boschee's Syrup has been used so successfully for fifty-one years in all parts of the United States for coughs, bronchitis, colds settled in the throat, especially lung troubles? It gives the patient a good night's rest, freedom from coughing with easy expectation in the morning, gives nature a chance to soothe the inflamed parts, throw off the disease, helping the patient to regain his health. Made in America and sold for more than half a century.—Adv.

NOTHING NEW IN WARFARE

Methods Employed During Great Conflict Merely Copies of Those in Use Long Ago.

By the use of trenches in the great war the opposing forces adopted means of offense and defense that long antedated the invention of firearms. The steel helmet, reappeared after more than 200 years of disuse, and many a soldier owes his life to the fact that the curved surface of his head-covering deflected a bullet. The trench periscope is an adaptation of a device that was invented nearly three centuries ago. The barbed wire entanglement is only another form of the ancient abatis, and the fact that it is now often painted green to make it less easy to see is a link that joins it even more intimately to its prototype. The pits with sharp spikes on the bottom and the cut-ups—four-pointed iron instruments that always stand with one point upward however they may fall, are survivals of medieval warfare. The catapult of the Romans that once threw stones recently cast explosive grenades from trench to trench. The German flame projector goes back to the days when armies delayed each other with burning oil and burning pitch, and the use of poisonous gases was anticipated by the Chinese, who for centuries used "stimulants."

Airplanes to Subdue Head Hunters.
The next Japanese budget of the governor general of Formosa will contain an item of $51,500 for a flying corps to subdue the head-hunting aborigines of that island. Mr. Shimomura, chief of civil administration of Formosa, says: "Probably four airplanes will be used in the first year, and operations will be started as soon as the formal sanction of the diet is obtained. If it is difficult to secure the necessary aviators, we shall ask the army to send their aviators. We may also ask the army to train new aviators specially to meet our requirements. There is nothing like airplanes for subduing Formosan natives. Experience shows that this weapon is one of the best for subduing them. No economic exploitation of Ait, Dalu, Nintike and other unsubdued tribes can be undertaken until after the savage aborigines are subdued."

His Ice Cream Bucket.
They were on the back platform of an outbound Irvington street car. One was carrying a small paper bucket, which was labeled all over with the words, "Hot Cream."

When the other passengers eyed the bucket it was evident they either thought the ice cream season was past or wondered why the carrier hadn't bought it in Irvington instead of carrying it such a distance.

"I guess people think I'm dippy, carrying a bucket of ice cream from downtown when it can be bought out here," said the man with the bucket.

"But it's not ice cream, it's chilly," said the other man who was sitting next to him. "You should worry," said the other. —Indianapolis News.

Life as It Is Lived.
The gentleman from the agricultural district had come to the city, and after disposing of several heavy suit bags at $200 a throw stopped in a cigar store. Never mind what the cigar store man said, but the gentleman from the agricultural district requested that the waiter bring him a cigar. "Seven cents for a cigar, seven cents for a cigar," said the waiter. "I must think I got money to burn." (Of course there is no particular moral connected herewith because the gentleman from the agricultural district started from downtown on a run.) —Indianapolis News.

Kidding Himself.
"What fellow Jones is plumb crazy kidding himself?"
"How do you know?"
"Why making excuses for himself—boasting himself with pretense. For instance, the other night he came in at 12 o'clock. He didn't want to be to his wife, so he turned the hall clock over on its side to make it look like a quarter of nine, and went to bed conscientiously."

Paradoxical Action.
"Why do these two speak so easily to each other?"
"Because they've had warm words."

When it is our duty to do an act of justice it should be done promptly. Delay is injustice.—Lafayette.

PIPELESS PREFERRED

Many householders write for advice in heating their homes, and tell us they desire to heat with furnaces, and very often wind up with the words, "PIPELESS PREFERRED."

Many houses, there are, which can be heated perfectly with the pipeless method; one register warms all the rooms and draws the cold air off the floors, making the rooms comfortable, and circulating heat to the farthest corners.

There are, however, many houses where the pipeless method is not the best method. Rooms that are detached and away from the main rooms, having more than ordinary exposure, and in which more than ordinary heating is required, are not within the scope of the pipeless method, but we have other methods of heating with furnaces, four of them; and one of the four is the best one for you. It is desirable that a study should be made of each house before deciding which of these methods to use.

For this reason, we ask our friends to send us a simple sketch showing the sizes and arrangement of their rooms. We will then say which is the best and most economical method, and what type of furnace we would recommend. COSTS 'EM FIFTY BUCKS EACH TO GET THEIR NAMES IN PAPER

Stevens Point Journal.—Joseph and Frank Flatoff of Meehan, father and son, were fined $50 and costs each, the total amounting to $113, in county court Thursday, when they pleaded guilty to violation of the fishing law.

The complaint was made by J. V. Kelsey, conservation agent, who caught them in the act of fishing out of season.

The fishing was done in Love creek between Meehan and the Wisconsin river. The fish taken, it is said, were fed to the hogs.

When brought into court, accompanied by the women of the family, the defendants decided to plead guilty.

"Will this be in the Journal?" asked Mrs. Joseph Flatoff.

"The Journal man is right here in the court room now," said Judge Murat, pointed out the reporter, who anticipated a request that the news be withheld.

"Well, it ought to be printed when anybody pays a fine like that," said the lady and the incident came to a close.

While there is no better way of getting publicity than by spending your money around for public improvements, Bertha Flatoff, who also lives over at Meehan and is doubtless a relative of the people mentioned in the preceding article, seems to still have the bugle on the balance of the family for getting good substantial publicity.

A couple of years ago Bertha Lippard over in her Ford car. This being her second accident of a similar nature, the Tribune carried the story and mentioned it being her second accident. A few days later, under the heading, "Whoa Bertha," the article taken from the Grand Rapids Tribune appeared in the Chicago Tribune. All of this didn't cost Bertha a cent outside the repairs for her Ford.

INTERESTING NEWS FROM SOLDIER BOYS

FROM FRED SCHNABEL

Wednesday, March 13, 1919

Dear Al and Bill:—

Last evening it was my pleasure to be in attendance at the opening of the new Y. M. C. A. auditorium here in this city.

The speech of acceptance made by Major Rite, commander of this post, alluded to the wonderful good accomplished by the Red Cross, Y. M. C. A. and Knights of Columbus and the thought occurred to me that some of the facts he gave out, would be of especial interest to those mothers and fathers who have sons and relatives in the A. E. F.

You and your readers have undoubtedly heard the unfounded rumors relative to the corruptness which was said to be spreading among our soldiers since the signing of the armistice. Say unfounded because statistics prove them to be such and as the figures I will give go to show, of course immorality and the army is made up of all kinds and classes. Each night the members of this sub post are given permission to go to a village called Gieves which is but about 200 rods from the post, and at this village all the beer and wine can be bought that his means will permit. However in face of this condition figures prove that the men do not indulge freely but return in a manner becoming a gentleman. Major Pyffe stated that out of the 3200 men in the post, that during the month of February, of this year, no drunkenness was reported and arrests made—now when you consider what 3200 men would mean in the states (approximately a city of 3200 people) and the very few cases of drunkenness existed.

You can readily see that statements to the effect that we were becoming corrupt are entirely false and that the army is made up of all kinds and classes. However in face of this condition figures prove that the men do not indulge freely but return in a manner becoming a gentleman. Major Pyffe stated that out of the 3200 men in the post, that during the month of February, of this year, no drunkenness was reported and arrests made—now when you consider what 3200 men would mean in the states (approximately a city of 3200 people) and the very few cases of drunkenness existed.

You can readily see that statements to the effect that we were becoming corrupt are entirely false and that the army is made up of all kinds and classes. Each night the members of this sub post are given permission to go to a village called Gieves which is but about 200 rods from the post, and at this village all the beer and wine can be bought that his means will permit. COSTS 'EM FIFTY DUCKS EACH
TO GET THEIR NAMES IN PAPER

Stevens Point Journal—Joseph and Frank Platoff of Meohan, father and son, were fined $50 and costs each, the total amounting to $110, in county court Thursday, when they pleaded guilty to violation of the fishing law.

The complaint was made by J. V. Kelsey, conservation agent, who caught them in the act of fishing out of season.

The fishing was done in Love creek between Meohan and the Wisconsin river. The fish taken, it is said, were fed to the hogs.

When brought into court, accompanied by the women of the family, the defendants decided to plead guilty.

"Will this be in the Journal?" asked Mrs. Joseph Platoff.

"The Journal man is right here in the court room now," said Judge Murray, pointed out the reporter, who anticipated a request that the news be withheld.

"Well, it ought to be printed when anybody pays a fine like that," said the lady and the incident came to a close.

While there is no better way of getting publicity than by spending your money around for public improvement, Bertha Platoff, who also lives out at Meohan and is doubtless a relative of the people mentioned in the preceding article, seems to still have the bulge on the balance of the family for getting good substantial publicity. A couple of years ago Bertha tipped over in her Ford car. This being her second accident of a similar nature the Tribune carried the story and mentioned it being her second accident. A few days later, under the heading, "Whoa Bertha," the article taken from the Grand Rapids Tribune appeared in the Chicago Tribune. All of this didn't cost Bertha a cent outside the repairs for her Ford.

INTERESTING NEWS
FROM SOLDIER BOYS

FROM FRED SCHNABEL

Wednesday, March 15, 1919

Dear Al and Bill:

Last evening it was my pleasure to be in attendance at the opening of the new Y. M. C. A. auditorium here in this sub post and in the speech of acceptance made by Major Fife, commander of this post, alluded to the wonderful good accomplished by the Red Cross X. M. C. A. and Knights of Columbus and the thought occurred to me that some of the facts he gave out, would be of especial interest to those mothers and fathers who have sons and relatives in the U. S. A.

You and your readers have undoubtedly heard the unfounded rumors relative to the corruption of our soldiers since the signing of the armistice. I say unfounded because statistics prove them to be such and as the figures I will give go to show, of course immorality and drunkenness do not exist and it is undoubtedly will as long as the possibility for it continues, but when you consider the facts in the matter you will readily see that conditions are really excellent rather than the contrary.

Wine, rum, beer, etc. are easily accessible for all our soldiers and the use of same is not entirely forbidden and for this reason, men do not usually imbibe too much and are not under the influence. But why wouldn't such be the case when it is so easy a matter to get it and where the army is made up of all kinds and classes. Each night the members of the sub post are given permission to go to a village called Gieves which is but about 200 rods from the post, and at this village all the beer and who can be bought there is made with pure grain. However in face of this condition figures prove that the men do not indulge freely but return in a manner becoming gentlemen. Major Fife stated that he had never in the month of post, that during the month of February, only five cases of drunkenness were reported and arrests made.

Now when you consider what 2200 men who had made, here in this sub post, in the states approximately a city of 2500 people and that only five cases of drunkenness existed.

You can readily see that statistics to the effect that we were immoral and drunkards are entirely false. One of the main reasons for this, he (Major Fife) explained, was the fact that you people back in the states had been so willing to deny your own soldiers and to condemn them so freely to the cause of the "Y." Red Cross and K. of C. These three agencies as well as others with which I am not so well acquainted arranged along with several other organizations of all kinds and varieties. For instance the "Y" arranged musical entertainments, picture shows etc. The K. of C. furnish grates, hand saws, axes and all the kind of equipment we desire and the Red Cross waits upon us from the health side. Now if it were not for these several agencies, seeking to it that entertainment of the right kind was furnished, one can readily see that there the possibility of our looking for diversion in other lines that was arranged and provided for.

Now for the question of immorality. About a week ago General Pershing inspected this entire Gieves Project (which is the largest in France) and the figures he said that out of the 2500 men located in this camp, there were only 145 cases of disease reported. Now this may sound like a large number to you but judging from what I have seen in the five months I have been here in France I will say that the number is trivial for the reason that the morals of the people here are now up to the standard of the United States.

I conclude that in view of these facts there need be little worry on the part of the folks relatives to the return of our soldiers in a good condition, physically as when they first landed.

Major Fife (the officers to whom I have alluded) is a veteran army man and I should judge well into the sixties and well educated, being a graduate of West Point and he stated in no mixed words that he thought of our doing as wonderful as to how, prior to the war was unbelievable. We all know that this was and is the most marvelous army raised in the history of the world and the first thing that made it possible was the cause for which we were willing to sacrifice our lives and then the ultimate reason, the fact that you all were so generously liberal in your subscription to the agencies. I have referred to history in years to come will lead your generously and far sightedness as it was this that made us successful in the final outcome of this world war. Undoubtedly had the morals of the German army been as well looked after as ours were, we then would have been much longer in conquering them.

Right now, there is but one thing for which we are all longing for and that is a speedy return to our own wonderful U. S. A. and made more wonderful to us of the A. B. C. because we have seen the contrast between our country and foreign lands. With kindest regards to you and your readers I am,

Yours truly,
F. M. Schnabel,

FROM LESTER RAYMOND

Luntango, Luxembourg

March 15, 1919

Dear Uncle, Aunt and Cousins:—Your kind and welcome letter was received on March 11th and was very glad to hear from you. It found me in fair health but hope that this letter will reach you and find you all in the best of health.

They lined up the company and then marched down to the infirmary to get a shot in the left arm, as we call it. But I will tell the world I suffered, for three days I could hardly move my arm. It was swollen up from my shoulder to my wrist so you can imagine how I felt. My whole body was sore and perhaps we will have to take two more. I am sure to see them come.

Yes and I was sure glad to get Earl's address. I wrote to him that night and I sure hope he receives it this time. No doubt he is thinking that I don't care to write to him sure hope he doesn't. You also mentioned in your letter that Jeffery was at home. I sure feel glad for him. I know just how he took army life, at least I can imagine. No doubt it makes a father and mother feel much better. I bet Earl is missed a whole lot at home and by his friends. Yes Uncle I heard of Lawrence's death a short time after

JAMES CANNING, PIONEER

James Canning, one of the old and respected residents of Grand Rapids, passed away at the home of his son, John Canning, last Wednesday, following a general breakdown in health which had left him in a weakened condition for several weeks past. He had been able to get around some until quite near the end. Mr. Canning was born in Canada in 1827. He was raised in one of the Canadian provinces and came to this city when he was twenty-five years of age. He was married in this city his home continuously since that time and was one of the respected residents. He is survived by four sons, John and Alfred of this city; Edward, Intercession, Minn.; and Walter, of Escanaba, Mich. The funeral services were held Friday afternoon under the direction of the Masonic Lodge, in which being made in Forest Hill Cemetery.

Mrs. John Sadow, one of the well known residents of this city, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Severance of Fourth Avenue, last Saturday. Mrs. Sadow was 82 years of age at the time of her death and succumbed after a short illness of bright disease. Mrs. Sadow was born in Germany and had lived in this country for the past fifty-four years. During this time she has made her home in Grand Rapids and in this vicinity having lived at Kellner until about fifteen years ago. Later she came here and lived in the city and in different times lived with her daughters at Denfield, Minn., and Seymour, Wis. She is survived by her daughters, Mrs. J. W. Severance of this city, Mrs. Andrew Givens of Denfield, Minn., Mrs. C. J. Sadow of Seymour, and by two sons, Henry Sadow of Denfield and John Sadow, Jr. of Vesper. She is also survived by a sister, Mrs. Chas. Drager of this city. Other relatives who were here for the funeral were Mrs. C. J. Christensen of Chicago, a granddaughter, and Mrs. John Sadow of Vesper. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 from the house and 2:00 from the German Lutheran church, Rev. Mellicke, officiating.

Mrs. George Bernard, formerly of this city, who had made her home with her husband in Wild Rose for the past year, died in that village Monday, after a week's illness of bright disease. Mrs. Bernard was daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Meunier of this city and was born and reared in Grand Rapids. After being married she made her home here for many years and about a year ago the family moved to Wild Rose. She was seventy-five years old at the time of her death and is survived by her husband and seven children, the oldest of the children being thirteen years. Her parents in this city, survived along with several brothers and sisters, they being, Mrs. Chas. Backlund, Mrs. Douglas McElroy, Daisy, Bernice, Hallie and Lloyd, all of this city; Louis of Chicago, Frank of International Falls, Minn.; and Mrs. Russell Macloud of Milwaukee. Another brother James, who lived in Illinois, died just five months previous to her death. The funeral services were held Wednesday morning at 9:00 o'clock from the Catholic church, burial being made in Calvary cemetery.

A single man gets a lot of information out of a good newspaper. But the man who reads a newspaper knows much that old cat across the street owes the grocer, and how much that old cat next door owes the laundry.

He died. It sure must of been hard on Uncle Peter and Aunt Maggie for they sure thought a lot of him and he sure must of been missed among his friends in Rudolph. But a person does not have to be in the battle fields to die. That is the way I took it. I always thought when my heart would come and the good Lord would me I will have to go like the rest. Of course we all like to live but I sure seen a lot of the poor boys suffer. I never will forget the things I have seen.

Uncle I could go to school all my life and I never would know what I know now. Nothing like having the experience. If my experience could be sold it would have time to take them could buy it and at the same time we have done our bit.

But thank the Lord is over. I received a letter from home the same day that I received yours, also one from Uncle. They are all well. Of course I am not a lonesome soldier. I receive plenty of mail. There are some girls in Chicago that I receive letters from.

I got a picture taken of myself and if I did not break the glass and they turn out good I will send you one, but I don't want you to be disappointed if they are not any good for I will not have time to take them over again. You also asked me to send you a letter like I sent Fred, but Uncle it is almost impossible for me, my mind isn't set on a letter like that. But when I wrote that letter of Fred's everything came right to me almost like a prayer. Well I will have to close hoping to hear from you again. With love and best regards to all.

I remain your nephew,

K. OF C. CLUB WILL SERVE LOCAL BOYS

Word which the Knights of Columbus lodge of this city has received from the War Activities Board abroad tells of a new Club House and Rest Room the K. of C. opened at Andernack, Germany, under the supervision of Secretary Humber. As several of the local boys are now located in and near Andernack it is evident that they will reap some of the benefits of the new home. The description of the opening of the new home follows:

"In order to give the members of the Third Division a foretaste of what is to be theirs after the opening of the clubhouse, the Knights of Columbus stage a side feature at the Rheinischer Hotel on the Rhine front at Andernack, the day of the horse show. Before nine in the morning a large truck carrying candy, thousands of cigarettes, and 10,000 doughnuts pulled into Andernack. Attached to the truck was a field kitchen. The kitchen was unhooked back of the hotel, and in a few minutes there was a fine breakfast. While hot chocolate was being prepared in quantities of fifty gallons, tables were being carried to the spacious veranda of the hotel and loaded down with candy, cigarettes and doughnuts.

A few minutes after noon everything was in readiness, and the boys of the Third Division who had come to witness the horse show formed in line at the first window, where the cups of hot chocolate were passed out. At the next window came huge, fat, well-browned doughnuts, then a pack of cigarettes, and finally at the fourth window a handful of good American hard candy.

One fellow asked the question: "Any seconds?" and Secretary Mulquholland replied: "Thirty-seconds if you want them." There was plenty for all and every soldier who passed the line of K. of C. sympathies will remember that on one occasion since he left the U. S. A. when he had lots of doughnuts and cocoa, as well as plenty of cigarettes and a bit of real candy.

Joseph Gramling and William Cavanaugh, who came into Germany with the Third Division, and who are now located at Coblenz as director and assistant director of kitchens of the K. of C. in the Third Army, presented the doughnuts and cocoa to present the daily output from these large kitchens is at least 15,000 doughnuts, and it is expected soon to be near 30,000. Of that amount the Third Division will draw a share every week.

Great plans are being made for the clubhouse at Klein Ailly, and the old slogan "Everybody Welcome and Everything Free" holds good. Secretary Mulquholland is to direct the place has been attached to the Tenth Field Artillery since early fall, and went through the Argonne-Meuse drive with the Third Division.

Every Man
is a Wise Man

Because every man has something to teach; the thing life through experience has taught him to do.

Nature but reproduces: man's experience taking the world where Nature stops builds it better; whether he makes an iron plow to improve the crooked stick—

Or turns mere rubber and cotton into pneumatic tires.

Experience is that unsearching intire, the quality of which turns them out good or bad.

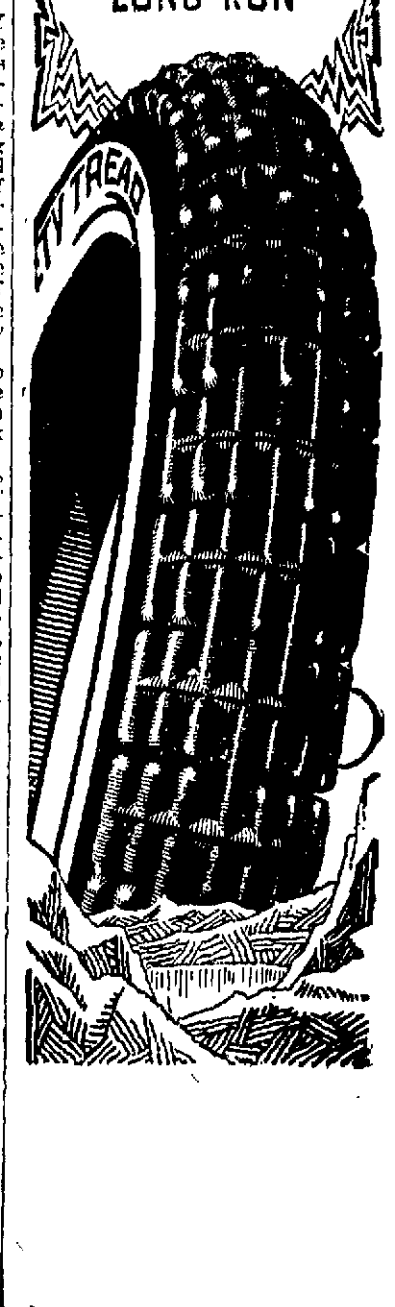

It vouches for Goodrich experience that Goodrich made the first American pneumatic tire, and ever since has fathered the improvement of automobile tires.

Why I Believe in the Tractor

By HENRY FORD

The reason why I believe that the tractor has a great future ahead of it is because I believe that it will increase happiness and make life more worth the living for more people throughout the world than any other device which has ever been given to mankind.

I believe it will make farming what it ought to be—the most pleasant, the most healthful and most profitable business in the world.

This may at first appear like an exaggeration but when you think what the tractor will do for millions of people all over the world it doesn't seem so.

Compare the Chinese coolie who works 14 to 16 hours a day, carrying great loads and who drops down, exhausted, in his hovel for a few hours sleep only to awake and repeat the daily grind—compare him with the American manufacturer or workman who labors eight to ten hours a day usually under comparatively pleasant conditions and then goes home with from 14 to 16 hours out of the 24 in which to sleep, improve himself and enjoy life.

The difference between the two is this. The coolie is working under the same condition that men worked under thousands of years ago, before they began to use their brains to devise machines and harness power to work for them so that they might produce more than they could with their hands alone.

The coolie works little and must work long hours because he produces little with his physical strength unaided by power and machinery.

The American workman earns more and works fewer hours because power and machinery enable him to produce more.

As a result, he gets more of the things that he wants and more time in which to enjoy them. The coolie gets none of the things he wants with the exception of enough food and shelter to enable him to eke out a mere existence. And he gets no time in which to enjoy life.

In every age and in every section of the world the happiness and prosperity of the people, generally speaking, can be measured by their success in devising machines and harnessing power so that each individual can produce more with less effort.

Of course there have been exceptions to this rule. In every age and in every country there have been a certain class who have been able to live idly and even luxuriously at the expense of the producing class. But I am speaking of the great class of real producers.

Then again, in modern times the producers have not always received the increased production which machinery and power have made possible. Too often the larger percentage of those profits have gone into the pockets of the few men who happen to own the power and the machines.

But this is being rapidly corrected. Today, the American workman works shorter hours, lives better, gets more of the things that make life worth living than any other class in any country in any age. And as time goes on he will get a greater and greater percentage of the profits which his work brings.

In this development from physical labor to labor of power and machines, the farmer has lagged behind.

Brute strength was the first power to be harnessed and put to work. Probably the farmer first did it. He hitched an ox or a horse to his crude plow or cart and made them work.

But he stopped there, so far as the development of the use of power was concerned. Many new and wonderful tools and implements were devised to aid him. But for centuries he continued to operate them either by hand power or by horses.

The coming of the gas engine helped him as far as the stationary work was concerned. But still in all of his field work—by far the most important work—he was limited to the speed and strength of horses—until the tractor came.

And all this time producers in other fields were outdistancing him. Mining gradually came to be done almost entirely by machinery. Manufacturers devised wonderful machines with almost human intelligence and marvelous speed to assist them. A hundred years ago, they harnessed steam power as well as water power to drive these machines, thus multiplying ten to twenty fold the productive capacity of each individual.

And the result has been that the farmer has been at a disadvantage. His production in proportion to the amount of work expended has been small compared with that of the city manufacturer or workman. It has been limited by the physical efforts of slow moving, costly maintained horses.

The life of a plowman and the joys of his existence may be poetic—to a poet a long way off. But there is nothing more dramatic—more demanding to the mind and ambition than to tramp mile after mile and hour after hour in a furrow following a slow moving team of horses with only an occasional whack in the ribs from the plow handles to vary the monotony.

This is not theory with me for I was born and raised on a farm and have followed the plow many a weary mile. I have been both a farmer and a manufacturer. So I know what an advantage power and machinery has given to the latter.

Can you imagine anything more wasteful or inefficient than for an intelligent man to be compelled to spend days and days following a slow moving team without a chance in the world of using his brains or his initiative to speed up that work beyond the leisurely rate at which the horses choose to navigate? And then at the end of the day what has he to show for his 12 to 14 hours of labor? An acre or two of ground plowed up, imagine a modern manufacturing concern producing under such conditions.

And the result has been that each individual farmer worker has been able to produce so little that he has had to work long hours, even to get his thirty to fifty dollars a month and board.

Is it any wonder that farmers and farm workers have left the farms where they could get neither the things they want or the time to enjoy them and have gone to the city where by the aid of power and machines they have been able to produce more and thus to get more of the things they want and more leisure to enjoy life?

Then again the farmer has been under a disadvantage in this. He has been compelled to produce the things which he sells in the cities by these inefficient methods. On the other hand, he has been compelled to buy the things he wants from the cities—clothes, household furnishings and utilities, farm machinery, etc., from manufacturers who produce efficiently with the aid of power and machines. Naturally he has got the worst of the exchange. But the tractor will change all this.

In the tractor the farmer now has a machine in which is harnessed one of the most adaptable, efficient, economical sources of power in the world—the internal combustion engine. The tractor will multiply the productive capacity of each individual farmer worker from 3 to 4 times over. It will put the farmer on a par with the city manufacturer. It will put his produce producing factory factory and heavy manual labor, give him good working conditions and more leisure.

In this way, I believe that the tractor will make life more enjoyable both for the man who owns the farm and the man who works it. Thus it will make farming the most enjoyable, profitable business in the world.

And because there are more people in the world engaged in farming than in any other business, the tractor will prove the blessing which has ever been given to mankind. Is this an exaggeration? I think not.

LUXURY TAX WILL MAKE APPEARANCE NEXT MONTH

Merchants will be called upon after May first to collect the luxury tax carrying a rate of 10 per cent above fixed prices on any articles which have been designated by the government as luxuries. While the buying public generally will have to foot the bill it will also require of the merchant a comprehensive system of daily bookkeeping in order to keep track of the sales of articles on the luxury list to ascertain the tax that goes to the government.

For example, carpets and rugs, including fiber, except imported and American rugs, made principally of wool, will be taxed 10 per cent on the amount in excess of $5 per square yard. Picture frames will be taxed on the amount in excess of $10 each. Trunks selling for more than $50 will be taxed 10 per cent on the amount which exceeds $50. Valises, traveling bags, suit cases, hat boxes used by travelers and fitted toilet cases will be taxed 10 per cent when the amount is in excess of $24 each. Purses, pocket books, shopping and hand bags are to be taxed on the amount in excess of $7.50 each, and fans when the price is more than $3. House or smoking coats or jackets, one and bath or lounging robes are taxed when the amount exceeds $7.50 each.

Women's and misses' hats are included in the taxable list and taxed each to the value of $15. Men's and boys' hats when selling for more than $5 each are taxed and men's and boys' caps on the amount in excess of $2. Shoes are included when more than $10 a pair is asked. Neckties come in on the federal luxury tax when the price goes over $2. Men's and boys' silk stockings when selling for more than $1 each, and 10 per cent raise and women's and misses' silk stockings or hose on the amount in excess of $2 per pair. Other garments included are men's shirts, where the price is beyond $3 and pajamas in excess of $5 and excess of $5 and kimono, petticoats and waists on the amount higher than $15 each.

SPRAYING SCHEDULE FOR WISCONSIN APPLE TREES

Wisconsin farmers are beginning to realize that spraying is necessary to grow good fruit. Many, however, do not know what materials to use or how to use them. If the growers will follow carefully the plan as given below better fruit will result which will amply repay the cost of application of spray.

The plum curculio and the codling moth are the two most important pests of the apple. The lesser apple worm and the green fruit worm, although of minor importance add to the amount of unmarketable fruit in the unsprayed orchard. Plant diseases also affect the quality and quantity of fruit grown. If proper spraying is neglected.

First spray is applied just as the flower buds separate in the clusters showing pink. Use powdered arsenate of lead 1½ pounds to 50 gallons of water. For plant diseases (scab) add lime sulfur 5 quarts to 50 gallons of the above spray.

The second spray comes after the petals fall and before the calyx closes. Use arsenate of lead 1 lb. to 50 gallons, adding 5 quarts of lime sulfur for scab.

Third spray should be applied two weeks after the second, using the same materials.

The fourth spray should be applied 60 to 65 days after the third application of about the fifth to the tenth of August. Use same spray as in 3 and 4. (If weather is rather hot and sunny, Bordeaux mixtures 4-4-50 formula should be substituted for lime sulfur.)

In spraying plums and cherries apply only the first three sprays.

FARMERS CAN'T AFFORD TO USE CHEAP SIRE

There is no more wisdom in a farmer using a scrub sire now-days than there is in a soldier going to war with a cheap, no account rifle. Army man who will use as good a rifle as he should, can improve his herd in one generation so that every cow he milks will be a profitable cow.

There is not a healthy cow in this country so poor but that by making her with a good pure-bred sire, offspring of a profitable sort can be produced. Like produces like, or the likeness of an ancestor is the great law upon which any farmer who improves his stock has been built.

By the use of that law and careful intelligent selection the American Beauty Rose has been built from the wild rose that grows in the clay bank along the road side, the Jonathan apple has been bred from the little, hard, bitter crab apple of the woods and the best cow in the world has been bred from a poor, low-bred, horned, flat face, crooked legged, shallow bodied, drooping rumped, wild cow that roamed the forests and prairies but a few centuries ago.

Our cattle have all been bred well for us by those who have preceded us. All we need to do is to follow the plans already laid down and provide a suitable environment.

At we need to do is to use good pure bred sires, the best we can secure, even though they do cost a little more than the common grade or scrub bull that cause men to dredge their lives away milking low producing, unprofitable sows.

For the thoughtful, intelligent American dairyman who is not too stingy to spend a few dollars for a pure bred bull and raise well his heifer calves there never was a time when the future promised him such prosperity.

And, looking out of consideration, there never was a time when his opportunity was so apparent and so great as it is today for performing his duty to his country, for the whole world, for future generations, for humanity, for civilization, for democracy and by the doing of his duty profit himself so largely.

SARATOGA

Jas. Johnson has a very sleek cow. He was over at his father's place Sunday to secure help to raise her. While at Saratoga, who recently purchased a Ford car took a trip Sunday with Eddie Kautonen and A. Lorenz and brought Lawrence Kautonen home. Sunday, April 20th being the third Sunday church will be held at Union chapel and Sunday school will not be held until 1:30 P. M. Instead of the regular 10 A. M. session. Mr. and Mrs. Margrey will sing "Gladly" in Sunday school by request. No special Easter program has been prepared as we organized our Sunday school only the last Sunday in March after having had the chapel closed all winter, as the best course because of various epidemics. Lee B. Margrey sold a grade Holstein calf five weeks old for $25.00 the past week. Fred Gugenberg has sold his forty known as the Dan Driscoll homestead to Stevens Point parties. Everyone who can is invited and urged to attend and bring members of our Sunday school classes for all ages. "Come then with us and we will do ye good."

WOOD COUNTY COW TESTING ASSOCIATION Report for March, 1910

Our tester, Mr. Anderson, has resigned. No reason given. Harvey Ward is starting work, Monday, April 17th. He will continue for two weeks at which time the work will be taken up by Frank Zahradka, a young man with farm experience and good education, who has just returned from France.

Plans are under way to organize an official cow testing association to consist of about eleven of the pure bred herds of Wood County. Our present association will be continued as in the past.

Two sales will be held this spring. Help us advertise throughout the county, the Holstein sale May 16th, the Guernsey sale May 29th. Entries to the Holstein sale are coming in very slowly. About sixty Guernseys have been entered.

There are 69 names on the honor list this month, giving a creditable showing. O. J. Lou has the high producing cow, making 71.3 lb. of fat. J. T. Holland comes second with a 65.3 lb. three year old. Both of the above are registered Holsteins. J. C. Kieffer & Sons have seven of the honor list; H. J. Bassener has seven on the honor list; and Clark & Jackson have seven on the honor list.

This report certainly is a good argument for the pure bred sire. Our sire campaign is coming nicely. Help it along. Get after the scrub and keep after him. His elimination from Wood County means thousands of dollars added to our wealth.

GREATEST WHEAT CROP FOR THE U. S.

Department of Agriculture Estimates Yield This Year at 837,000,000 Bushels.

VALUED AT $1,891,620,000

Condition of Grain on April 1 Was 99.8 Per Cent of Normal—This Year's Crop Will Be 152,000,000 Bu. More Than 1914.

Washington, April 10.—The largest crop of winter wheat ever grown was forecast for this year by the department of agriculture, basing its estimate on conditions existing April 1. This enormous yield of 837,000,000 bushels was announced, which at the government's guaranteed price of $2.26 a bushel, places the crop's value at $1,891,620,000.

The estimate on the condition of the crop April 1 was 99.8 per cent of normal.

This year's winter wheat crop, if no unfavorable conditions develop between now and time of harvest, will be 152,000,000 bushels larger than the previous record crop, produced in 1914, and 248,000,000 bushels more than was grown last year.

Production of winter wheat last year was 555,449,000 bushels, and in 1914 it was 412,901,000 bushels, while the record crop of 1,084,000,000 bushels was produced in 1914.

The condition of the crop on April 1, last year, was 78.6 per cent of a normal, while in 1917 it was 93.4, and the average of the last ten years was 82.3.

There was an increase in condition from December 1, last year, to April 1, this year, of 1.2 points, compared with an average decline in the last ten years of 5.0 points between those dates.

The forecast of production of winter wheat this year is based on the assumption of average abandonment of acreage and average influences on the crop to harvest.

The average condition of rye on April 1 was 90.6 per cent of a normal, against 85.8 on April 1, last year, 86 in 1917, and 88.6, the average condition for the last ten years on April 1.

CRY WIN MICHIGAN

RETURNS INDICATE REPUBLICAN TICKET SUCCESSFUL.

Amendment to Constitution Permitting Sale and Manufacture of Beer and Wine Rejected.

Detroit, April 8.—Returns from the biennial election in Michigan indicate that the entire Republican ticket has been successful. An amendment to the constitution permitting the sale and manufacture of beer and wine has been rejected and a bond issue of $50,000,000 for construction of a hard road system has carried.

In Detroit chief interest centered on a proposal to purchase the street railway system. Available returns show the vote to be close, 53 precincts giving 6,703 for and 7,556 against.

Grant M. Hudson, superintendent of the Anti-Social League, in a statement, claimed the days would see the fight against the constitutional amendment permitting the sale and use of light wine and beer by a majority of approximately 150,000 votes.

"Scattered reports received at this time from different parts of the state indicate clearly that the dry majority will be double that of 1916, when we carried the state by 69,000," Mr. Hudson said.

"Some of the places we have heard from include the city of Grand Rapids, dry by 1,400; Marquette, 700; Chequamegon, 403; and Westford county, 2,300. Reports from other parts of the state show the same gain."

Indications are that Detroit voted wet by 3 to 1. The vote in the rural districts was heavy for prohibition, 55 precincts rejecting 8,800 for the amendment and 20,115 against it.

The largest vote ever cast in Michigan was polled, and in many sections the women outvoted the men. This was the first time women have been privileged to vote, and they made the most of it.

COMPLETE THE LEAGUE DRAFT

Document Is Said to Contain Twenty-Seven Articles, as Revised.

WILSON UNABLE TO ATTEND

Drafting Committee Completes Work, but Final Action on Covenant is Postponed Until Thursday—Situation is Improved.

Paris, April 9.—It was learned from a high American authority that President Wilson has determined to have his say about peace, but if the treaty does not coincide with his theories he will issue a statement and leave Europe to settle her own affairs. If this happens a rapprochement between America and Germany will be an immediate possibility. The president is wrathful over the French attitude.

London, April 9.—Newspapers publish messages from Paris and New York purporting to confirm positively the news that President Wilson is returning to Washington before the conclusion of peace, leaving Lord Lansdowne and Colonel House to conclude and sign.

The drafting committee of the league of nations has now completed its work. The covenant, as revised, contains 27 articles.

The council of four met at the residence of Premier Lloyd George.

The first question taken up at the council was the question of the council, at which Colonel House represented President Wilson, was that of procedure. This was considered in an effort to accelerate the work of the council.

It was said by American members of the peace conference that the general situation improved somewhat by the commission on reparations on the main features of the reparations question, leaving only a few unessential details for adjustment. Generally a more hopeful tone prevailed in conference circles.

Members of the American delegation declined to give an explanation of the many rumors in circulation that the conference would complete its work shortly. One member when asked for definite information on the situation, said:

"You know the George Washington has been ordered to Brest. That is a good subject for speculation."

The view of President Wilson's attitude on French claims before the peace conference put forth by "certain American circles" are declared by the Marlin to be "entirely fantastic."

President Wilson, the Marlin says, is conscientiously studying the final details of the preliminary peace.

The Petit Journal comments in much the same vein, emphasizing that there are differences between the French and American delegations, especially regarding financial questions, as has been declared.

The Paris newspapers as a whole reiterate the view that it will be several days before the work of the conference will be completed in such a way that peace may be made simultaneously with Germany and her allies. They predict that the meetings in Versailles probably will take place within fifteen or twenty days.

According to Le Journal, the plan for a buffer state at the mouth of the Vistula has been abandoned. The handling over of Danzig to the Poles to be probably the course adopted.

The Echo de Paris says it is able to state that the solution of the reparations question reached by the conference provides for complete reparation. The plan, it adds, calls for the annual meeting of an international commission to decide upon the sum that Germany shall pay the following year.

Paris, April 8.—"Peace by Easter or bust" is the current slogan here, meaning that the allies must agree and summon the German delegates by April 20. Two weeks more are required for putting together and revising the entire treaty.

TO HOLD DRAFT MEN

SOME TO BE KEPT IN ARMY UNTIL AFTER PEACE.

Secretary of War Baker Announces Selects Discharge Depends on Speed in Getting Volunteers.

Washington, April 9.—Large numbers of drafted men who have been kept in the army to early demobilization are being sent to the front. Many are to be kept in service for the full period allowed by the law, which is four months after peace has been declared.

The war department desires to keep these men in service until a satisfactory number of enlistments have been made. The general staff plan of increasing the regular army to 500,000 men.

The decision to this effect is contained in a letter of Secretary Baker to Senator Reed of Missouri, made public here. It was written just before Secretary Baker left Washington for Europe.

Secretary Baker wrote that enlistments were coming in slowly and added:

"As enlistments can be made only up to the authorized strength of the regular army and this strength is not sufficient to meet all the necessities existing for troops, it will be necessary to retain a large number of the selective men in the army until such time as the war department may be empowered by congress to raise by voluntary enlistments a sufficient number of men to perform the duties required."

"Practically one-half of our troops sent abroad were carried in British ships, the use of which we cannot have at the present time as they are being employed in returning British colonial troops to their homes and in readjusting the world's food stocks elsewhere."

"It is no more possible to discharge men who have been retained for the purpose of performing the necessary work of the army, than it is to discharge men who are being employed in returning British colonial troops to their homes and in readjusting the world's food stocks elsewhere."

The Petit Journal comments in much the same vein, emphasizing that there are differences between the French and American delegations, especially regarding financial questions, as has been declared.

GREATEST WHEAT CROP FOR THE U. S.

Department of Agriculture Estimates Yield This Year at 837,000,000 Bushels.

VALUED AT $1,891,620,000

Condition of Grain on April 1 Was 99.8 Per Cent of Normal—This Year's Crop Will Be 152,000,000 Bu. More Than 1914.

Washington, April 10.—The largest crop of winter wheat ever grown was forecast for this year by the department of agriculture, basing its estimate on conditions existing April 1. The enormous yield of 837,000,000 bushels was announced, which, at the government's guaranteed price of $2.20 a bushel, places the crop's value at $1,891,620,000.

The estimate on the condition of the crop April 1 was 99.8 per cent of normal.

This year's winter wheat crop, if no unfavorable conditions develop between now and time of harvest, will be 152,000,000 bushels larger than the previous record crop produced in 1914, and 248,000,000 bushels more than was grown last year.

Production of winter wheat last year was 558,430,000 bushels and in 1917 it was 412,500,000 bushels, while the record crop of 684,000,000 bushels was produced in 1914.

The condition of the crop on April 1, last year, was 78.6 per cent of a normal, while in 1917 it was 68.4, and the average of the last ten years was 82.3.

There was an increase in condition from December 1, last year, to April 1, this year, of 12 points, compared with an average decline in the last ten years of 5.0 points between those dates.

The forecast of production of winter wheat this year is based on the assumption of average abandonment of acreage and average influences on the crop to harvest.

The average condition of rye on April 1 was 99.0 per cent of a normal, an increase of 1.2 points, compared with the average condition for the last ten years on April 1, 87.8.

DRYS WIN MICHIGAN

RETURNS INDICATE REPUBLICAN TICKET SUCCESSFUL

Amendment to Constitution Permitting Sale and Manufacture of Beer and Wine Rejected.

Detroit, April 8.—Returns from the biennial election in Michigan indicate that the entire Republican ticket has been successful, an amendment to the constitution permitting the sale and manufacture of beer and wine has been rejected and a bond issue of $50,000,000 for construction of a hard road system has carried.

In Detroit chief interest centered on a proposal to purchase the street railway system. Available returns show the vote to be close, 65,000 for and 67,000 against.

Grant M. Hudson, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league, in a statement, claimed the dries would win the fight against the constitutional amendment permitting the sale and use of light wine and beer by a majority of approximately 150,000 votes.

"Scattering reports received at this time from different parts of the state indicate clearly that the dry majority will be double that of 1916, when we carried the state by 60,000," Mr. Hudson said.

"Some of the places we have heard from include the city of Grand Traverse, dry majority, 1,400; Mecosta county, dry by 2,000; Marquette, 700; Lapeer, 400; and Westland county, 2,300. Reports from other parts of the state show the same gains."

Indications are that Detroit voted by 3 to 1. "The vote in the rural districts was heavy for prohibition, 35 precincts registering 8,000 for the amendment and 20,115 against it."

The largest vote ever cast in Michigan was polled, and in many sections the women outvoted the men. This was the first time women have been privileged to vote, and they made the most of it.

If this happens a rapprochement between America and Germany will be an immediate possibility. The president is wrathful over the French attitude.

London, April 9.—Newspapers publish messages from Paris and New York purporting to confirm positively the news that President Wilson is returning to Washington before the conclusion of the peace, leaving Mr. Lansing and Colonel House to conclude and sign it.

Paris, April 9.—The meeting of the peace conference commission on the league of nations for consideration of the completed draft of the covenant, which had been planned for last night, has been postponed until Thursday. It is understood the postponement was necessary by the inability of President Wilson to attend a meeting earlier than Thursday.

The drafting committee of the league of nations has now completed its work. The covenant, as revised, contains 27 articles.

The council of four met at the residence of Premier Lloyd George.

The first question taken up at the forenoon session of the council, at which Colonel House represented President Wilson, was that of procedure. This was considered in an effort to accelerate the work of the council.

It was said by American members of the peace conference that the general situation was improved somewhat because of the agreement reached by the commission on reparations on the night features of the reparations question, leaving only a few unessential details for adjustment. Generally a more hopeful tone prevailed in conference circles.

Members of the American delegation declined to give an explanation of the many rumors in circulation that the conference would complete its work shortly. One member when asked for definite information on the situation, said:

"You know the George Washington has been ordered to Brest. That is a good subject for speculation."

The views of President Wilson's attitude on French claims before the peace conference put forth by "certain American circles" are declared by the state department to be entirely mistaken. President Wilson, the state department is conventionally stating the final details of the preliminary peace.

The Petit Parisien comments in much the same vein, emphatically denying that there are differences between the French and American delegations, especially regarding financial questions, as has been declared.

The Paris newspapers as a whole reiterate the view that it will be several days before the work of the conference will be completed in such a way that peace may be made simultaneously with Germany and her allies. They predict that the meeting in Versailles probably will take place within fifteen or twenty days.

According to Le Journal, the plan for a buffer state at the mouth of the Vistula has been abandoned, the handing over of Danzig to the Poles to be probably the course adopted.

The Echo de Paris says it is able to state that the solution of the reparations question reached by the conference provides for complete reparation. The plan, it adds, calls for the annual payment of an interest commission to decide upon the sum that Germany shall pay the following year.

Paris, April 8.—"Peace by Baster or bay" is the current slogan here, meaning that the allies must agree and summon the German delegates by April 20. Two weeks more are required for putting together and revising the entire treaty.

TO HOLD DRAFT MEN

SOME TO BE KEPT IN ARMY UNTIL AFTER PEACE.

Secretary of War Baker Announces Special Discharge Depends on Speed in Getting Volunteers.

Washington, April 9.—Large numbers of drafted men who have been looking forward to early demobilization are doomed to disappointment. Many are to be kept in service for the full period allowed by the law, which is four months after peace has been declared.

The war department desires to keep these men in service until a satisfactory number of enlistments have been obtained under the general staff plan of increasing the regular army to 500,000 men.

The decision to this effect is contained in a letter of Secretary Baker to Senator Reed of Missouri, under which the plan of increasing the regular army to 500,000 men, which was voted by Secretary Baker last Washington for Europe.

Secretary Baker wrote that enlistments were coming in slowly and added:

"As enlistments can be made only up to the authorized strength of the regular army and this strength is not sufficient to meet all the necessities existing for troops, it will be necessary to retain a large number of the selective men in the army until such time as the war department may be empowered by congress to raise by voluntary enlistment a sufficient number of men to perform the duties required."

"Practically one-half of our troops sent abroad were drafted in British ships, the use of which we cannot have at the present time, as they are being employed in returning British colonial troops to their homes and in readjusting the world's food stocks elsewhere."

"It is no more possible to discharge men who have been retained for the purpose of performing the necessary work connected with demobilization, mobilization, convalescent centers, hospitals, domestic guard duty, aviation duties, government stores, harbor police, guarding insular possessions, etc., than it would have been in the midst of the war to have moved men out of trenches where they were fighting the enemy before other men were in their places to relieve them."

Washington Memorial to Bishop Francis Asbury

IN THE last hours of the Sixty-fifth congress Representative Charles H. Sloan of Nebraska made an address in favor of a senate joint resolution authorizing the erection of a public ground in Washington, D. C., of a memorial to Francis Asbury. No appropriation is asked; the funds have been raised by subscription. Congress is asked to give a site. Who was Francis Asbury? Doubtless the average American citizen does not know. Mr. Sloan said among other things:

"He was born in the parish of Hanover, England, August 20, 1745. Early called to active militant church service, he became, in 1771, the elder Wesley's 'predecessor' for America. He was a patriot, standing with the people whom he hoped to serve in their struggle for an independent nationality, while every one of his coworkers sent from England by Wesley went back to the mother country.

"The seashore and the great river banks had the important settlements of America. Many of them would have furnished a suitable home for a bishop, but this he did not desire nor would he have it. He believed that the outposts of American civilization should be the outposts of Methodism. He would be a commander to lead a charge rather than to order an advance made. So from 1784, when he was ordained a bishop, till 1810, when he passed to his reward, no road was too long to travel, no river too turbulent to cross, no storm too fearful to venture, no savage that he would not face, no civilized nation or mob he would not confront.

"At the Seneca general conference in May, 1816, on the commemoration of the centennial of Bishop Asbury's death, Judge Henry Wade Rogers in a masterly address, said:

"Asbury preached about 10,500 sermons; traveled about 270,000 miles, most of it on horseback, some of it on foot; presided in 224 annual conferences, and ordained more than 4,000 preachers. In addition, he was writing more than 1,000 letters a year."

Will December 31 Be the National Wedding Day?

YOUNG men contemplating matrimony will do well to bear in mind the latest interpretation of the law. The man who was married at any time during 1915, a commissioner has ruled, is entitled to tax exemption for a wife for a full year. Thus, he whose ceremony took place at 11 p. m., December 31, 1915, wins all of his $2,000 exemption—less, of course, the wedding expenses. On the other hand, he who married at 1 a. m., January 1, 1916 (and likely enough there were some such), might just as well have been married way back in 1917.

In Denver an enterprising reporter took a look at the 1915 marriage record and found that 13 couples were married on December 31. Denver has married on December 31 there was one marriage in 1915. In connection with the great federal aid program it is also noted that expenditures for highway work in the United States this year are likely to amount to $500,000,000 or more. On reports received from state highway departments the bureau of public roads estimates the 1915 expenditures for roads and bridges at $355,000,000, or $110,000,000 more than the average expenditures for 1914 and 1917.

An important effect of the law containing the new appropriation is that it broadens the definition of a rural post road, under which class a highway had to qualify in order to receive the benefits of the federal aid. This means that $10,000 a mile to not to exceed $20,000 a mile, taking account of higher present costs of labor and materials.

Of the $200,000,000 added to the funds available under the federal aid road act, the new law makes $90,000,000 available for expenditure by the secretary of agriculture for roads and trails within or partly within the national forests.

United States Has $574,000,000 for Good Roads

WITH full state cooperation, according to the terms of the federal aid road act, the United States will have a total of at least $574,000,000 for co-operative road building during the next three years. The federal part of this fund is assured by an extra appropriation of $200,000,000 in the post-office appropriation bill passed by congress.

Officials of the bureau of roads, United States department of agriculture, which administers the provisions of the federal aid road act and co-operates with the state governments in the expenditure of the money, point out that this amount of funds is the largest ever appropriated for similar purposes and for a similar period by any government in the history of the world.

An American Hero Gets Platinum for Uncle Sam

NOT all the American patriots at the front got decorations for duty performed. The story of how the United States obtained its supply of platinum during the war, and how a business man, Charles L. Preston of Massachusetts, went through hardships that led to his death in order that munition makers might not lack for a sufficient amount of metal, is thus told by William C. Redfield, secretary of commerce:

"Platinum is one of the few things not produced in this country, and it is absolutely necessary during our war processes in the manufacture of explosives. Russia produces platinum and we had to obtain it there. The price went up until it was $85 to $105 an ounce. During the latter days of the czar's reign and during the early days when Kerensky was in power we sent commissioners to Russia and they gathered platinum worth about $3,000,000.

"But we found soon we needed more, and the situation was rapidly becoming worse in Russia. Mr. Preston was in Vladivostok waiting for orders, and the revolution was in full swing. We called him to get together $30,000 ounces. Mr. Preston was serving without pay, but he crossed Siberia and picked up platinum wherever he could. He went through Russia and suffered greatly, as he could not get enough to eat. Finally he got together 23,000 ounces and reached Japan with it. He had it brought to the United States. Four hours after he reached home he fell dead at the feet of his wife: a result of the hardships he had undergone."

WHAT IS SHOWN IN SHOPS OF PARIS

Directoire Dress, Capes, Suits and Other Apparel Dear to Woman's Heart.

LINE OF LEAST RESISTANCE

Almost Everything Is Correct If It Follows Lines of the Figure—Outer Wraps Have Tendency to Exaggerate Natural Curves.

"As you were," says Paris, using soldierly language as the occasion demands, hastening to add, lest you think her arbitrary, what is, if you wish. In the first instance she refers to the pre-war styles, and in the second to the fact that if these do not please you there are plenty of other fashions that are suited to your individual taste.

Following the line of least resistance describes the newest fashions to a peppermint, for as if weary of controversy the makers of fashions have decided to pick up the legends of the

The long draped lines and transparent hem, together with the beaded bodice, is suggestive of the harem and carried out in rose and French blue, with beads of crystal and pearls. The ostrich ornament for the coiffure also is of rose and blue.

1514 models and weave them into those of today, thereby pleasing, if possible, everyone concerned. Practically, observes a prominent fashion writer, it works out in this way: Almost everything is in correct line if it follows the lines of the figure. The fact that the makers of the jackets voted for the directoire modes strengthens this conclusion rather than otherwise, as the dresses of this period particularly emphasize the lines of the figure underneath, while the coats and outer wraps, aside from the picturesque revers, have a tendency to exaggerate the natural curves. That is the point, that the human form divine is not altogether straight up and down is made particularly apparent.

The directoire fashions were in the air in 1914, but something intervened and the movement hardly progressed further than the draped skirts and the large revers; this time further developments seem possible. Aside from the fact that the directoire lines are preferred, one may dress as suits one's individuality.

Showing independence. Evidently the public have the bit in their teeth as regards a few points of the fashions. It is clearly shown that in the last few months there is no desire for eccentricities or extreme exaggerations. That the women of France have a great deal to say, particularly the fashionables of Paris, as to what will be taken up is sometimes overlooked in the general admiration of the models put forth by the makers. At the Paris opera lately when the official ban on evening clothes was lifted it was noted that instead of the brilliant clothes expected by the designers and which they had prepared for there was little display.

Starkers in Paris are still dimly lighted, wounded soldiers are everywhere and women swathed in mourning serve as a background which throws even the moderately bright clothes into sudden relief. How, then, can the designers expect the women to wear the brightest of colors and the most extravagant of clothes? A certain amount of somberness and more drastic restraint in the untransmuted extravagance of pre-war days was to be noted only in isolated cases in the boxes.

It is said that the American woman in Paris can be spotted easily by her longer skirt and long, tight sleeve. This order of affairs is about to be changed and the longer skirt is about to become universal. As to the extremely short sleeves, the American woman will wear them while in Paris and on some occasions at home, but not in the afternoon except in the sheerer materials.

"We Aim to Please." That there are modes to please every woman in whatever type she may demand is emphasized by two reports from the other side. One states that the Milson Dorellet, in putting forth the directoire dress, followed the original inspiration as to the extent of the upcurving waistline at the front, and another house shows waists that dip downward at the front in a point.

Capes, say some authorities, are going to be worn by the women who know and suits will be left to the general public who do not know. All very well for Paris, but one might as well try to break an American woman of the habit of entering as to think of depriving her of her well tailored suit. That the makers know this is evident from the fact that their suits are more than ordinarily worth while.

All of the models of this house are of the strictly tailored classification. The lengths are modified to suit the wearer, but the same general lines are preserved throughout. The skirts are quite tight and the coats are cut with daring godet plaits in the pelum, whether the latter be long or short.

Doucet ideas run counter to those of some of the other houses. No directoire models are to be seen in this collection, as Doucet clings to the old straight line, and the suits are built on this principle as well as the dresses. A slight concession to the general trend may be found in the high square collars seen on the straight knee-length jackets.

The Tunic Apron. Premet tailors are enhanced by the addition of front tunic aprons buttoned down the sides, but otherwise they are quite straight and simple. The suit coats that are worn with these skirts are three-quarter length and may be cut away at the front, and the collars and cuffs are of contrasting colors. The upper part of the jacket is loosely girdled and the skirt part is made with the swinging directoire flare.

Jenny prefers the knee-length jacket for her suits, which she makes of serge, tannins and covert cloth. These are shown with waistcoats of white faille striped in gold and of white Ottoman silk.

Doanlet depends for chic on the slush, which is found in abundance on the jackets and seen singly on the skirts.

Summing it all up, it would seem that the skirts to the jackets will remain long and that the jackets are in general longer, but it must be kept in mind that these same long jacket models have held for several seasons in Paris and have been modified in length for wear on this side. Also the makers are showing some of the pieces and which have quite short coats with them, or perhaps are supplemented with short capes. Buttons are possibly the chief trimming, noted at the sides of the jackets and up and down the entire length of the skirt at the back.

A beautiful tea dress of blue taffeta with diagonal flounces with novel trimming of loop silk fringe.

Afternoon dresses show many decided changes, and there are many women who will breathe a sigh of relief over the fact. It can hardly be denied that the styles of dress in vogue for the last few seasons have been most trying to all but the freshest and youngest of women. A collarless, trimmings, perfectly plain bodice demands greater perfection than the average woman feels sure of possessing.

HANDBAG TO MATCH COSTUME

To Be in Style Each Outfit Must Be Accompanied by Its Own Particular Reticule.

From being an almost insignificant item of the complete street costume, the handbag has advanced to such a prominent position in the wardrobe that it is one of the most conspicuous features of dress. It is considered now as a dress adjunct rather than as an accessory of utilitarian character. Far better carry no handbag at all, and stow your belongings away in pockets than to carry a bag that will jar upon the complete harmony of your costume, or strike a clashing note with any part of it.

This exceeding importance of the hand-bag means, of course, many handbags for many costumes. No longer is it possible to get along with one or two—say a useful leather bag for shopping and traveling, and more ornate bag for the theater and calling use. Each costume must be matched with its own particular reticule, which must accord in style as well as in color

THREE OF MANAGERIAL CHANGES IN BIG LEAGUES CAUSE OF UNFAVORABLE TALK

Big league managers come and go between fading and blooming seasons. Scarcely a year goes by that fails to see one or more managerial air castles blown to the four winds, and the winter season of 1915-19 has run true to form.

Four of the 16 major league clubs enter the coming pennant races with new pilots. The Reds, Phillies, Cardinals and White Sox will launch their pennant campaigns next summer with strange hands holding the reins.

Three of the four changes have caused much comment, mostly unfavorable comment—among baseball observers. The cases of Pat Moran, Jack Hendricks and Clarence Rowland have been argued pro and con.

Deserved Better Fate. Rowland's release by Charles Comiskey was a surprise, inasmuch as the former line Sox leader was thought to be "in" with the Old Roman. Apparently, to the outsider, Rowland's release was undeserved. He piloted the world's champions of 1917 for Comiskey, and he had a host of friends in the majors, friends he won for himself. But the indicator swerved from Rowland to Kid Gleason, seasoned and highly training veteran. And the fans did not have to read between the lines to see that Comiskey credited Gleason with the success

EDDIE COLLINS ONE OF HIGH-PAID STARS

Contract With White Sox Will Net $10,000 in Cash.

Second Sacker in Last Four Years Has Drawn More Money Than Any Other Player With Exception of Cobb and Speaker.

Charles Comiskey, owner of the White Sox, has been charged by baseball fans with underpaying his ball players. It has been gossip that the Chicago National league team has always given its men higher salaries.

The contract Eddie Collins, second baseman, has with the White Sox chief does not make it appear as if the players on the South side were poorly paid. Collins is one of the highest paid men in the game, and in the last four years probably has drawn more money than any other man in the major leagues, with the exception of Ty Cobb and Tris Speaker.

The second sacker's contract with the White Sox expires with the close of the coming season, and when it does he will have earned for himself approximately $100,000.

Collins was purchased from the Philadelphia Athletics for a price reported to have been $50,000. Before he signed a contract with President Comiskey, starting the year of 1915, he was given a bonus of $15,000 and a salary calling for the same amount. He has drawn that each year since and receives it again this year for the last time, as his contract terminates in the fall. Besides the bonus he obtained for signing, and his yearly salary, Collins was counted in on city series and a world's series.

PLAN TO ENCOURAGE ROWING

President of National Association of Amateur Oarsmen Has Scheme to Help Sport.

James Pilkington, president of the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen, has formulated a plan which will put American amateur noncollegiate rowing and sculling on a higher plane than ever before has been attained.

Briefly, his scheme is to abolish the initiation fees and to reduce to a minimum the monthly dues of all boat clubs to soldiers and sailors who have been or are in the service.

FAST LONG-DISTANCE RUNNER

George McCrea of Scotland Is Given Credit for Being Greatest of Present Time.

Collegian to Giants. Pitcher Ryan of Holy Cross college has been signed by the Giants.

FLYNN IS IRON MAN OF RING

Veteran Fireman Still Offering Himself as Target for Jabs of Young Fighters.

Old Jim Flynn still is offering himself as a target for the jabs and jolts of younger men out on the Pacific coast. The veteran fireman now is on his eighteenth year of his career in the ring. He has been at it longer than any other heavyweight in the name, Sam Langford being his nearest rival in this respect. In the matter of durability, however, Flynn is in a class by himself. Even when in his prime he was a chopping block for clever opponents, while it was not until of late years that Langford has been forced to take much punishment.

DEMPSEY PICKED FOR TITLE

Tommy Burns, Former Heavyweight Champion of World, Thinks Young Man Will Win.

Tommy Burns, one-time heavyweight champion of the world, thinks Jack Dempsey will defeat Jess Willard if the two ever meet.

"Willard is champion because nature was good to him," Burns said. "His enormous size handicaps his opponents. I do not think he has any of the boxing science that characterized former champions. On the other hand, Dempsey is in good condition, is fairly heavy, has a terrible punch, and, unlike Willard, has some of the attributes of a boxer."

Burns recently was discharged from the Canadian army.

INTERESTING SPORT PARAGRAPHS

The Red Sox will have about the stiffest infield in the big leagues this season.

Forrest Cady, former catcher with the Boston Red Sox, wants to play on the Pacific coast.

Oakland is well pleased at the return of Outfielder Lawrence (Hack) Miller by the Boston Americans.

Bradley Hogg, pitcher for the Phillies, has changed his mind again and at latest accounts has "retired."

Experts who saw Lew Tondler box Joe Welling are divided as to whether the Philadelphia has the makings of a lightweight champion.

Chase began his major league baseball career in New York. It looks as if he will end it there now that the Giants have grabbed him.

Another University of Santa Clara star is to break into the professional game through the medium of the Pacific Coast league. He is Jack O'Neill, a shortstop.

Manager George Stallings of the Braves is not letting any pitchers get out of the major leagues. He is taking every experienced twirler he can grab.

With Pitcher Claude Williams signed, all the White Sox players who left the game last season for shipyard work are again in line.

If the Giants take the air route to Philadelphia to open the season it will not be a new experience for some of the pitchers.

Eddie Collins figures he will have the best year of his career this season.

Herb Hunter, who was being dogged on by the San Francisco club for its outfield, is in the navy hospital at San Diego with a broken knee and may not be able to play ball again.

The New York clubs have a weakness for players they have disposed of. Ray Keating and Jack Quinn of the Yanks, and Herzog, Demaree, Doyle and Murray have had this experience.

The transfer of Pitcher Harry Salter from the New York Giants to the Cincinnati Reds is said to be entirely satisfactory to the bank southpaw, since it permits him to be near his home much of the season.

This Speaker gradually is gathering his friends about him on the Cleveland team and the Indians begin to look much like the old Red Sox. The former Boston players now include Speaker, Wood, Nunnemaker, The and Gahner.

HOW CAN YOU TELL YOUR FAVORITE TOBACCO?

As Plain as the Nose on Your Face—Just Smell It

Smokers do not have to put tobacco in their pipes to find out if they like it. They can just rub the tobacco between the palms of their hands and smell it. The nose is an infallible guide to smoking enjoyment.

Choosing tobacco employ some flavoring "to improve the flavor and burning qualities of the leaves," to quote the Encyclopedia Britannica. Naturally, there is considerable difference in the kind of flavoring used, and the nose quickly detects this difference. TUXEDO Tobacco was the purest, most wholesome, and delicious of all smoking tobaccos. And the almost universal liking for chocolate in a great measure explains the widespread popularity of TUXEDO Tobacco.

Carefully aged, old Harley tobacco, plus a dash of pure chocolate, gives TUXEDO Tobacco a pure fragrance your nose can quickly distinguish from any other tobacco. Try it and see.

His Unfortunate Mistake. A doleful affair has just occurred in one of our neighboring states. A man had been importuned by his wife to assist in the hour of spring housecleaning. Instead of beating the carpet he made such a convincing effort to beat his wife that the neighbors were forced to interfere.

WILL BUILD WALK ALONG LINCOLN SCHOOL GROUNDS. At a short meeting of the School Board Monday evening a few matters of minor importance came up, the evening being spent largely in discussing how the coal bills for the Lincoln school could be reduced. The advisability of putting in a sidewalk along Lincoln street, on the west side of the school grounds was discussed, the fact that the street will be paved being taken into consideration. It was decided to tear the fence down on this side of the school and put in a walk which will replace the path which has served there for many years. It is probable that something will be done regarding the present heating system of the Lincoln building, it being considered from an economical standpoint.
